COVID-19

FIELD HOSPITAL INAUGURATED

101,814 Total number of COVID-19 cases in Oman

88.9% Total recoveries — 90,600, (recovery rate ~ 88.9%)

985 Total deaths due to COVID-19

207 Total number of patients admitted to ICUs

The government has provided and will continue to provide all means to combat this pandemic, said the Minister of Health

Times News Service

MUSCAT: The first phase of the field hospital for COVID-19 patients at the old Muscat Airport was inaugurated on Monday by Sayyid Saud bin Hilal Al Busaidi, Minister of State and Governor of Muscat in the presence of Dr. Ahmed bin Mohammed Al Saidi, Minister of Health.

"This hospital will play a vital role in reducing the burden on the hospitals across the Governorate, and accordingly, those hospitals will be able to do their usual work normally," Sayyid Saud Al Busaidi, Minister of State and Governor of Muscat, said.

The Minister of Health said that the control in the number of COVID-19 cases depends on the adherence of citizens and residents.

The government has provided and will continue to provide all means to combat this pandemic, which is our responsibility as individuals, institutions, families, community and stakeholders, he affirmed.

He added that it is very sad to register 207 cases in the ICUs for COVID-19 in the Sultanate and 45 deaths during the past days.

"This hospital has been completed in a record time of less than two months which had never been done in the history of the Sultanate," he added.

The Minister of Health also touched upon the COVID-19 vaccine, where he stressed that a number of manufacturers have reached the phase 3 trials. The Ministry is in constant contact with all these firms, however, there is no specific date to start manufacturing the vaccine commercially.

He emphasised that the Sultanate will not use any medicine or vaccine unless it has ascertained that it is safe and effective.

As soon as all the medical and technical equipment along with the health workers, including doctors, nurses, pharmacists, lab technicians, and radiologists are deputed, the hospital will start receiving patients. The first phase of the hospital will start with a capacity of 100 beds; however, the number of beds in the hospital will reach 312 in the next phase.

A shelter centre will be attached to the field hospital with an area of 10,000 sqm and a capacity of 384 beds. The shelter will be transferred to a hospital, if necessary.

The aim of establishing a field hospital is to relieve the pressure on the Sultanate's hospitals, and to bring back the essential services that have been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic, as well as to maintain the health of the medics in the hospitals and changing the general atmosphere for the COVID-19 patients during admission.

Currently, the field hospital will cater to the patients from governorates of Muscat, South and North Al Batinah, Al Dakhiliyah, and North Al Sharqiyah and other governorates will be covered, if necessary, in the future. >A5

LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Tourist boats can now operate at 70 per cent of capacity

Times News Service

MUSCAT: Tourist boats holding diving permits and operating in Oman are required to operate at 70 per cent of their total personnel capacity, according to the directives issued by the Environment Authority (EA) to resume leisure activities during the COVID-19 pandemic.

In a statement, the EA said, "Clubs and individuals who have obtained diving permits from the authority must adhere to the following precautions, in addition to the preventive measures from the Ministry of Health.

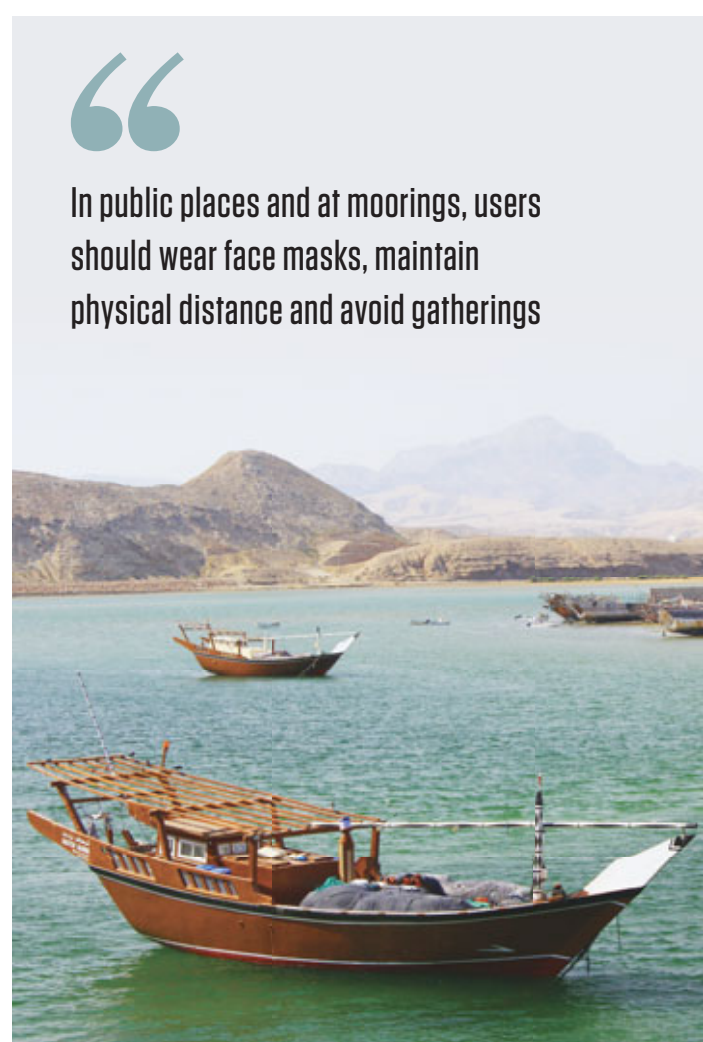

"The number of people on board a big yacht, excursion boat and cruise ship should not exceed 70 per cent of the rated capacity, including crew members," added the authority.

"In public places and at moorings, users should wear face masks, maintain physical distance and avoid gatherings. Mooring departments shall provide hand sanitisers in public places."

The steps from the Environment Authority were issued following the decisions from the Supreme Committee to deal with COVID-19, and are based on the maritime regulation circular issued by the Directorate General of Maritime Affairs at the Ministry of Transport, Communications and Information Technology, to the management teams at marinas, and the owners of tourist boats and pleasure craft.

Ministry of Health advice

The Ministry of Health has also issued advice, in association with UNICEF, on ensuring proper hand hygiene for children when they step onto boats, as well as

In public places and at moorings, users should wear face masks, maintain physical distance and avoid gatherings

other areas, as part of its efforts to spread awareness on COVID-19. "Promote healthy behaviour in children to prevent them from infection," said the advisory. "Make their practice conscious and enjoyable."

The ministry also asked for parents to make their children aware of the importance of hand hygiene, and to provide them a special hand-washing area and give them a soap that they liked, so that they would take more interest in following hand hygiene.

"Give them a leadership role by reminding them of the importance of, and when to wash hands," added the Ministry of Health and UNICEF.

"Share with your children the correct way to wash hands."

Mrunal Khimji.

and Dr Madhu Harihar, who lead the practice in Oman.

The participants received illuminating answers in response to life issues such as concerns surrounding hormonal changes, the topic of handling picky eaters, avoiding junk food, the impact of sports and exercise, balanced meals, anxiety, special foods, and multivitamin deficiencies, and the need for parents especially to consult a doctor when they needed to find the right solutions to problems they faced.

Mrunal Khimji, an established fashion designer and consultant at Mrunal’s Boutique, moderated the webinar.

Sri Sri Tattva Panchakarma

Sri Sri Tattva Panchakarma, with more than a decade of expertise in the Oman market, provides personalised consultation services from nutrition, diet and lifestyle, and pulse diagnosis (nadi pareeksha) to weight management and general consultations.

Sri Sri Tattva Panchakarma doctors are available for online consultation (with specialisation in tongue mapping). The expert Ayurveda physicians are capable of diagnosing the signs and symptoms of the patient to understand the root cause of their health conditions. Based on this complete oral examination, the doctors suggest the right diet, lifestyle, and Ayurvedic medicines.

All the participants received five percent off on food items and 10 percent off on non-food items made by Sri Sri when they shop on Rafeeq.

Similarly, Rafeeq has launched a campaign, offering a discount on all Sri Sri products, which will run until 10 October.

Firms can pay membership renewal fee till end of year

This decision has been taken to provide best facilities to the members so that they can practice their commercial activities, said the OCCI

EXEMPTION: The OCCI has taken this decision as the private sector is facing difficulties due to the outbreak of COVID-19.

The OCCI said in a statement: “The Board of Directors has extend until the end of this year, the time for companies to renew their fees. This comes within the Chamber’s interest and its observance of the current conditions that the private sector is going through due to the outbreak of COVID-19.”

Ali Al Jabri, the head of OCCI branch in North Al Sharqiyah said: “Since the announcement of initiative on March 2020, we have witnessed a great turnout by businessmen to renew their membership, and more than 2,000 membership certificates were issued to business owners in the North Al Sharqiyah Governorate only.”

“This initiative has contributed to the recovery of a lot of businesses and institutions that have stopped their activities due to lack of renewal of their commercial records, and it has made it easier for them to launch their businesses as many government agencies require the OCCI membership certificate of complete their transactions,” Al Jabri added.

The Renewal of membership certificate in North Sharqiyah Chamber and most of the other chambers is done via WhatsApp, the only thing is that the record holder has to send a copy of the membership certificate or the commercial record number via WhatsApp.

The person is notified of the required fees and the certificate is issued within five minutes

Ali Al Jabri said: “I invite the project owners to initiate, renew their membership, and benefit from the initiative announced by the Chamber.”

Flights to nine Indian cities from October 8

The flights to Delhi, Mumbai and Kochi will be operated by Oman Air while SalamAir will fly to Kozhikode, Chennai, Hyderabad, Jaipur, Lucknow and Thiruvananthapuram

Times News Service

MUSCAT: Indian nationals in Oman who wish to fly back home can now travel to nine cities back home, after Oman Air and SalamAir announced flights to these destinations.
The news comes after the decision to create an air bubble for passengers travelling to and from the two countries. Starting from 8 October, Oman Air will operate two flights a week to connect Muscat with Delhi, Mumbai and Kochi. Flights to and from Delhi will depart and arrive in each city on Mondays and Wednesdays.

Flights to and from Mumbai will connect on Sundays and Thursdays. Flights connecting Muscat and Kochi will depart and arrive in each city on Sundays and Thursdays.
"Oman Air will maintain its comprehensive safety programme throughout all elements of the travel journey to ensure that guests fly confidently," said a statement from the airline. "Masks are required when guests are on board the aircraft and in Oman's airports. Distancing is maintained while guests board and exit the aircraft, which are carefully cleaned after each flight and at the end of every day.

"All cabin crew wear a full set of personal protective equipment, meal service has been modified to further ensure safety and a number of other steps have been taken to ensure that the airline's guests and crew are safe at all times," added Oman Air.
Guests who are planning to travel to Muscat should visit the Civil Aviation Authority website, paca.gov.om, to ensure they are prepared to comply with requirements to enter the Sultanate, while those departing from Oman should also ensure that they are aware of all pre-departure requirements and requirements during their flights, which are provided at omanair.com. Passengers travelling to India should ensure that they are aware of official requirements to enter the country.

SalamAir, meanwhile, will operate passenger flights twice a week to six cities: Kozhikode, Chennai, Hyderabad, Jaipur, Lucknow and Thiruvananthapuram, until the end of November.

Important market
Captain Mohamed Ahmed, CEO of SalamAir said, "India is one of the most important markets for all airlines operating in the Middle East due to the size of its population, number of tourists, and expat residents. SalamAir has operated nearly 700 chartered flights to overseas destinations over the last three months, with many of them flying to India. "This has enabled us to gain a lot of knowledge about the market and passengers' expectations. This exposure will make our entry to the Indian market a smoother experience."

RICH IN HISTORY AND CULTURE

WHERE: The wilayat of Nizwa is in Dakhiliyah region and is about 140 kilometres from Muscat. It is one of the oldest cities in Oman and is known to be the centre of trade and education.

WHAT'S SPECIAL: Nizwa Fort is one of the main attractions for tourists visiting the place. It was built in the 1668 AD by Imam Sultan Bin Saif Al Ya'rub. Nizwa Fort is one of the country's oldest and most well-preserved forts. From pottery and other crafts one can find many traditional artefacts here. According to Oman's Ministry of Tourism, "Nizwa Fort was built in the middle of the 17th century. The fort, which took 12 years to build, is linked with a castle by means of intricate corridors. Near the fort and castle is the traditional Nizwa market famous for its artefacts." One can also find several date palms here. One cannot miss the old world charms of the Nizwa souq. There are several shops here that sell traditional goods and local products. From spices, dates and pottery items to silverware, carpets and lamps, one can find everything here. Meat, fish, fruits and vegetables are also sold in the daily market. Falaj Daris, the largest falaj in Oman, and Al Ghantuq and Dhoot are the important falajs in Nizwa.

LIVELIHOOD: Farming is the main occupation here. Nizwa is also known for sugar processing, hide tanning, mats and metalwork industries.

DECISIVE CONTRIBUTION

Nobel Prize for Medicine awarded for Hepatitis C discovery

STOCKHOLM: The 2020 Nobel Prize in Medicine was awarded to Harvey J. Alter, Michael Houghton and Charles M. Rice, the Karolinska Institute in Stockholm announced on Monday.

The laureates were honoured for their “decisive contribution to the fight against blood-borne hepatitis — a major global health problem,” the jury said.

Thanks to the trio’s discovery, highly sensitive blood tests for the virus are now available, which have “essentially eliminated post-transfusion hepatitis in many parts of the world, the Nobel committee said.

There are over 70 million cases of hepatitis worldwide and 400,000 deaths each year, according to World Health Organization estimates. The disease is a major cause of liver inflammation and cancer.

The award comes with 10 million Swedish kronor (over $1,118,000, €950,000) from a bequest left 124 years ago by the prize’s creator, Swedish inventor Alfred Nobel. The prize money was recently increased to allow for inflation.

It is common for several scientists who worked in the same field to share the prize. ow

US President eyes return despite concern about his health condition

Trump briefly left his suite at Walter Reed National Military Medical Centre in Maryland for a motorcade ride on Sunday evening

WASHINGTON: US President Donald Trump appeared eager for a quick return on Sunday as he’s undergoing COVID-19 treatment at a hospital despite concern about his condition.

On Sunday evening, Trump briefly left his suite at Walter Reed National Military Medical Center in Bethesda, Maryland for a motorcade ride to greet his supporters outside the hospital. The masked president, accompanied by Secret Service agents, waved and gave a thumbs up from the backseat of a black SUV.

“I’m not telling anybody but you,

but I’m about to make a little surprise visit,” the president said in a video posted to Twitter before going out for the greeting.

The movement immediately raised safety concern as critics argued Trump, who’s still recovering from the highly contagious virus, was unnecessarily putting his security detail at risk.

“That Presidential SUV is not only bulletproof, but hermetically sealed against chemical attack. The risk of COVID-19 transmission inside is as high as it gets outside of medical procedures,” James Phillips, an attending physician at Walter Reed, tweeted.

“The irresponsibility is astounding. My thoughts are with the Secret Service forced to play.”

White House deputy press secretary Judd Deere defended the drive-by, claiming in a statement that it “was cleared by the medical team as safe to do.”

“Appropriate precautions were taken in the execution of this movement to protect the President and all those supporting it, including PPE,” Deere added.

Earlier on Sunday, a day after Trump’s doctors said he has been “not yet out of the woods,” they provided a rosy assessment of his condition, saying that the president could be discharged as early as Monday.

“If he continues to look and feel as well as he does today, our hope is that we can plan for a discharge as early as tomorrow to the White House where he can continue his treatment course,” Brian Garibaldi, a member of Trump’s medical team and lung specialist, briefed reporters from Walter Reed.

Trump participated in a phone call with Vice President Mike Pence, Secretary of State Mike Pompeo, and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff General Mark Milley from a conference room at Walter Reed on Sunday, according to the White House.

“So far the president is in great shape. He’s firmly in command of the government of the country,” U.S. National Security Advisor Robert O’Brien told CBS News earlier in the day, calling a transfer of power from Trump to Pence not “on the table right now.”

Trump was first diagnosed with COVID-19 on Thursday and moved to Walter Reed on Friday, where he was using Remdesivir, a COVID-19 drug made by the U.S. biopharmaceutical company Gilead Sciences, as a treatment. Xinhua

BREXIT

Germany says no-deal Brexit would be ‘irresponsible’

BERLIN: German Chancellor Angela Merkel and the European Union’s chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier met in Berlin on Monday to discuss the ongoing trade negotiations between the UK and the bloc. Time is running out for the UK and the EU to reach an agreement.

Barnier also met with German Foreign Minister Heiko Maas, who said that a no-deal Brexit would be “irresponsible,” particularly given the economic and health impacts of the coronavirus pandemic.

“With today’s health and economic challenges, people on both sides of the channel have enough to shoulder, so it would be totally irresponsible to burden them in this position with the additional problems through a no-deal,” Maas said.

Maas stressed that the EU was still open to constructive discussions with the UK. “Our door is still open for a close and ambitious partnership with Britain,” he said.

The foreign minister also said on Twitter that while the coronavirus had made negotiations more difficult “in every respect,” they had made reaching a deal more crucial, too.

UK Prime Minister Boris Johnson said the European Council

bership, which will end on December 31. If no deal is ratified by then, the UK could end the transition period without any trade agreement with the bloc.

Goldman Sachs predicts November deal

The meeting came shortly after global bank Goldman Sachs published a report on Monday morning predicting that a deal would be reached by early November, although there remained the risk of a breakdown in negotiations.

“Our core view remains that a ‘thin’ zero-tariff/zero-quota trade agreement will likely be struck by early November, and subsequently ratified by the end of December,” Goldman analysts said in a report sent to clients.

“The risk of a breakdown in negotiations cannot be ruled out,” the report added. “We continue to think the perceived probability of a ‘no deal’ will persist beyond the next European Council meeting in mid-October.” Boris Johnson and European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen spoke in a video conference to discuss the “state of play” of Brexit negotiations, saying afterwards that “significant gaps remained.” ow

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

Australia records first day without COVID-19 deaths since mid-September

CANBERRA: Australia has recorded its first day with zero COVID-19 deaths since mid-September.

As of Monday afternoon, Australia’s coronavirus death toll remained at 894.

It is the first time that the death toll has not risen since September 15 and only the second time since July 13, at which time there had been 108 deaths from the virus in Australia.

The number of confirmed cases of COVID-19 in Australia rose to 27,149 on Monday, and the number of new cases in the last 24 hours is 11, according to the latest figures from Australian Government Department of Health.

Victoria, the hardest-hit state by the COVID-19 pandemic in the country, reported nine new cases and New South Wales confirmed one new case in a recently returned traveller in hotel quarantine. Victoria now accounts for about 74.4 percent of Australia’s coronavirus cases and 90.1 percent of deaths.

As the second wave of infections in Victoria subsides, Michael Gunner, the Chief Minister of the Northern Territory, on Monday said that the territory’s borders could be opened to travellers from regional Victoria as early as Nov. 2.

Gunner, who previously said that borders could remain closed until 2022, said that Melbourne, the capital city of Victoria, was “on the cusp” of controlling the pandemic.

“The average number of cases diagnosed in the last 14 days for metropolitan Melbourne is 11.6 and regional Victoria is 0.3,” said a statement from the Department of Health and Human Services in Victoria on Monday. Xinhua

Bomb explosion hits convoy of Afghanistan governor, 8 killed

MEHTARLAM: Four civilians and four security guards were killed and 38 people wounded after a car bomb blast hit Mehtarlam city, capital of Afghanistan’s eastern Laghman province on Monday, local government confirmed.

“The car bomb blast hit the convoy of provincial governor Rahmatullah Yarmal when the motorcade was passing-by Sultan Ghazi Baba locality of the city. As a result four guards and four pedestrians were martyred and 38, including two guards, were wounded,” the government said in a statement.

Unofficial sources said a suicide bomber staged the attack that also caused destruction in the city, 90 km east of the country’s capital Kabul.

The governor escaped the attack as he was sitting in an armored vehicle.

The statement blamed enemies of peace, referring to the Taliban militant group, for the attack.

However, the militant group has yet to make comments.

Chairman of the High Council for National Reconciliation Abdullah Abdullah strongly condemned the attack. Violence lingers in the war-torn country even as peace talks between the Afghan government delegation and Taliban representatives are being held in Doha, capital of the Gulf state of Qatar. Xinhua

CORONAVIRUS UPDATE: The Italian capital is taking aggressive steps against the pandemic, including the deployment of police on the streets of Rome to enforce the implementation of hygiene rules.

LONDON: Some European countries have carried out tougher measures, including restrictions on indoor and outdoor gatherings, mandatory mask-wearing and deployment of police on streets to combat rising COVID-19 cases.

Another 22,961 people in Britain have tested positive for COVID-19, bringing its national caseload to 502,978, according to official figures released on Sunday.

Tighter restrictions came into force at midnight on Saturday in parts of northern England, making it illegal to meet people indoors from other households in the Liverpool City Region, Hartlepool, Middlesbrough and Warrington.

The move came after Britain's R number, which shows the coronavirus reproduction, has risen to as high as 1.6, the latest official figures showed Friday.

If the reproduction rate is above one, it means the number of cases will increase exponentially.

British Health Secretary Matt Hancock said it was "necessary" to bring in the new measures and urged people in these areas to travel only when it is essential -- for example to school and work, and not to attend sports events as spectators. More than a third of Britain's population is now under tightened restrictions, the BBC reported.

quired to wear masks at all times, even when they are outside and far from anyone else (exceptions only allowed for those with certain medical problems, children under the age of six and people who are exercising).

At least three smaller Italian regions -- Campania, which includes the city of Naples; the island region of Sicily; and Basilicata, the arch of Italy's boot-shaped peninsula -- have issued similar mask laws.

Local media reported that more than 800 additional police officers were posted to the streets of Rome to issue warnings to rule-breakers on Saturday, and violators could face fines of up to 400 euros (470 U.S. dollars).

Over 3,000 police controls had been carried out in Rome on Saturday morning alone, according to local television channel 10.

Greek authorities have announced their decision to extend a series of restrictive measures introduced a few weeks ago until Oct. 12 due to a high epidemiological load in Athens and the wider region.

The measures include a limit of nine people for indoor and outdoor gatherings and a suspension of indoor and outdoor concerts, Nikos Hardalias, deputy minister for Civil Protection and Crisis Management, said during a regular press briefing on Friday.

Similar restrictions have been implemented in many regions lately as the authorities make efforts to avoid a new full nationwide lockdown. Xinhua

Pilgrims return to Mecca as Saudi eases coronavirus restrictions

RIYADH: A limited number of pilgrims returned to Islam's holiest site on Sunday after Saudi Arabia partially lifted coronavirus restrictions that had been in place since March.

The Saudi government started allowing a maximum of 6,000 people a day to enter Mecca's Grand Mosque to perform Umrah -- a pilgrimage to Islam's two holiest sites that can be taken at any time of year.

"In an atmosphere of faith and with assured hearts... the first batch of pilgrims begin the pilgrimage in accordance with the precautionary measures laid out," the Hajj Ministry said on Twitter.

Coronavirus prevention measures

Only Saudi citizens and residents will be permitted to enter the mosque during the first phase of reopening.

During the second stage from October 18, the number of umrah pilgrims will be increased to 15,000 per day.

Muslims from abroad will be permitted in the third stage from November 1, when capacity will be raised to 20,000, according to the Interior Ministry.

Before visitors can enter the Grand Mosque, they are required to complete an online application and reserve a specific time and date to avoid crowding. Each person has up to three hours to complete the pilgrimage.

Pilgrims must be accompanied by a health worker and are not allowed to touch the revered Black Stone in the eastern corner of the Kaaba.

Thermal sensors have been installed to measure pilgrims' body temperature and medical teams are present in case of an emergency, according to Mecca authorities. The mosque is also being cleaned and sterilised multiple times a day.

Hopes to return to full capacity

State TV showed on Sunday what appeared to be fewer than 50 pilgrims circling the Kaaba at the same time and walking several meters apart.

Last year, Saudi Arabia drew 19 million Umrah visitors.

The decision to resume the pilgrimage was taken in response to the "aspirations of Muslims home and abroad," the Interior Ministry said in September, adding that the umrah can return to full capacity once the threat of the pandemic has subsided.

The Gulf country has registered nearly 336,000 coronavirus cases, including 4,850 deaths. DW

Fashion legend Kenzo Takada dies of coronavirus at 81

PARIS: Fashion designer Kenzo Takada, who made his name into a world-renowned fashion brand, died on Sunday. He was 81.

Takada was famed for his jungle-infused designs and free-spirit aesthetic, inspired by global travel.

"It is with immense sadness that KENZO has learned of the passing of our founder," the fashion house said in a statement. "For half a century, Mr Takada has been an emblematic personality in the fashion industry -- always infusing creativity and color into the world."

The KENZO fashion house had just unveiled its bee-themed collection during Paris Fashion Week.

"His amazing energy, kindness and talent and smile were contagious," said KENZO's artistic director, Felipe Oliveira Baptista, who released the new range to fashion editors. "His kindred spirit will live forever."

Kenzo Takada was born in 1939 and grew up with six siblings near the Japanese city of Himeji.

Even as a young boy with a flair for drawing he was fascinated by fashion -- inspired by his sisters' magazines. He gained his first experience designing and tailoring outfits for dolls.

Takada studied at Tokyo's Bunka College of Fashion after which he had a brief stint working in Japan before relocating to France in 1965.

He arrived in the French port of Marseilles aged 25, intending to stay only for a short while, and would become the first Japanese designer to make it big in France.

The mayor of Paris, Anne Hidalgo, tweeted that the city was "mourning one of its sons," saying the designer had given space to color and light in fashion.

Takada retired from the fashion brand in 1999 to pursue a career in art. DW

Premier League sees Liverpool concede 7, Manchester United 6

Liverpool's defence was overrun for the entire 90 minutes at Villa Park with Ollie Watkins scoring a first half hat-trick

LONDON: The weekend produced two absolutely incredible results in the Premier League as Manchester United lost 6-1 at home to Tottenham, while reigning champion Liverpool was thrashed 7-2 away to Aston Villa.

Liverpool's defence was overrun for the entire 90 minutes at Villa Park with Ollie Watkins scoring a first half hat-trick, Jack Grealish scoring twice and John McGinn and, new arrival, Ross Barkley also getting in on the act.

Although Liverpool's substitute goalkeeper Adrian was at fault for the opening goal, Villa picked holes time-after-time in the Liverpool back line and could have had an eighth when Watkins hit the bar in the last minute.

Mohamed Salah scored twice for Liverpool, but that was scant consolation as Liverpool became the first reigning champion to concede seven goals since 1953.

It was not the only stunning result of the weekend. Tottenham inflicted a humiliating 6-1 defeat on Manchester United at Old Trafford as the home side's defense imploded in a disastrous performance that Spurs exploited to the full.

United had a dream start when Bruno Fernandes scored a second minute penalty, but soon dropped behind as Tanguy Ndombele and then Son Heung-min netted for Spurs.

Things got worse for Ole Gunnar Solskjaer's team as Anthony Martial was sent off for lashing out at HAT-TRICK GOAL: Aston Villa's Ollie Watkins celebrates after scoring his hat-trick goal during the English Premier League match between Aston Villa and Liverpool at Villa Park in Britain.

Erik Lamela, and Harry Kane and Son made it 4-1 before halftime.

Serge Aurier added a fifth soon after the break, and a Kane penalty 10 minutes from time rounded off the scoring in a game that could leave Solskjaer's job at risk.

Arsenal continued its positive start to the season with a 2-1 win at home over Sheffield United, but Mikel Arteta's side had to endure a frantic end to its game after David McGoldrick curled home a spectacular 83rd minute goal for the visitors.

Arsenal had led 2-0 through goals from Bukayo Saka and Nicolas Pepe, but McGoldrick's goal left them clinging on for the final whistle. An excellent team performance from West Ham saw them rewarded with a surprise 3-0 win away over Leicester City, who had demolished Manchester City 5-2 a week ago.

Michail Antonio, Pablo Fornals and Jared Bowen scored West Ham's goals in the 14th, 34th and 84th minute of the game.

Meanwhile Southampton claimed a routine 2-0 victory at home to West Bromwich Albion, who is still searching for its first win of the campaign.

Moussa Djenepo scored his first home goal for Southampton in the 41st minute and Oriol Romeu smacked home a sensational volley with just over 20 minutes remaining as the Saints kept their second clean sheet in two games.

Wolves also claimed three points thanks to Pedro Neto's 56th minute goal at home against a Fulham side still looking for its first point since returning to the top-flight.

James Rodriguez scored twice and added an assist as Everton beat Brighton 4-2 to keep its 100 percent winning record on Saturday.

Dominic Calvert-Lewin's 16th minute header put Everton ahead but Brighton equalized through Neal Maupay after a Jordan Pickford error.

Yerry Mina's header put Everton back in front on the stroke of halftime and James rounded off an excellent individual display with two second half goals.

Leeds United and Manchester City producing a thrilling 1-1 draw which lived up to expectations in terms of entertainment and suspect defending.

Raheem Sterling opened the scoring for the visitors in the 17th minute, but Rodrigo Moreno's first goal for Leeds in the 59th minute, following an error from City keeper Ederson, gave his side a point they more than deserved.

Ben Chilwell had a perfect Chelsea debut with the opening goal and an assist for Kurt Zouma in Chelsea's 4-0 win at home over Crystal Palace, which was rounded off by two penalties from Jorginho.

Saturday ended with Newcastle United winning 3-1 at home over Burnley thanks to an excellent display from winger Allan Saint-Maximin and two goals from Callum Wilson. Xinhua

ROLAND GARROS

Top-seeded Halep stunned by Swiatek, Nadal moves on

PARIS: Top seed Simona Halep's 17-game winning streak was snapped on Sunday at Roland Garros, as the Romanian ended her run for a third major title 6-1, 6-2 following a devastating performance from Iga Swiatek in the women's singles fourth-round match.

The 19-year-old Pole needed just 68 minutes to avenge her exit to the 2018 champion last year in Paris at the same stage.

"I don't know what happened actually, I felt like I was playing perfectly, I was so focused the whole match, even I am surprised that I can do that," said the 54th-ranked Swiatek, who fired 30 winners and won 81 percent of her first-serve to wrap up the victory.

"I wasn't experienced at all then, that was my first match on a big stadium like that, so I was pretty stressed," Swiatek said of her fourth-round loss to Halep last year.

"Since then, I've made huge progress because I've played a few big matches, against Simona, against Caroline Wozniacki and Naomi Osaka, and I think it helped me a lot and now I feel like I can handle the pressure," Swiatek added.

Halep didn't play at her best, especially when facing a firing teenager who combined her drop shot and backhand so perfectly throughout the match.

"She played unbelievable today and she was everywhere and she hit all the balls in a very strong, very powerful way," the world No.2 said after the match. "It was a little bit cold and I couldn't be at my best."

"I knew she was going to be aggressive. I knew that she's playing this way. Today it worked really well for her," Halep added. "At this level, nobody surprises anybody anymore because everyone has a big level and it depends on the day that you are."

Swiatek is to face another unexpected winner from the fourth round - Martina Trevisan, as the world No. 159 stunned another title favorite Kiki Bertens 6-4, 6-4 in a later match on Court Suzanne-Lenglen.

"I'm living in a dream. I came here two weeks ago to my Roland-Garros qualifying but today I'm here in the quarterfinals," said the 26-year-old Italian qualifier, who hadn't played a Grand Slam main draw before this year's Australian Open, where she suffered an early first-round exit.

On the men's side, 12-time Roland Garros winner Rafael Nadal continued his run after dropping only four games to complete a 6-1, 6-1, 6-2 win over American youngster Sebastian Korda, son of 1998 Australian Open winner Petr Korda. Xinhua

Barca drops 1st point as win over Levante takes Real Madrid on top

MADRID: FC Barcelona dropped its first points of the season when it was held to a 1-1 draw in the Camp Nou Stadium by Sevilla on Sunday night.

Sevilla opened the scoring in the 7th minute when Luuk de Jong fired home with his left foot after Barca failed to deal with a corner, but Barca levelled barely a minute later when Jesus Navas was unable to clear Jordi Alba's ball into the area, allowing Coutinho to pick his spot.

The first 45 minutes were entertaining, but after the break Barca began to look fatigued. Ronald Koeman made several changes, bringing Francisco Trincao, Pedri and Miralem Pjanic into the action, while Sergino Dest made his debut for the injured Jordi Alba.

Despite Trincao having a late shot saved, Barca didn't do enough to win, while Sevilla looked happy with a point.

Real Madrid won 2-0 away at Levante in a game played in Villarreal's El Madrigal Stadium thanks to an excellent first half goal from Vinicius Jr, who curled his shot in at the far post and an injury time goal from Karim Benzema and a series of important saves from Thibaut Courtois sent his side on top of the table.

Osasuna got back to winning ways with a 2-0 win at home over Celta Vigo, thanks to a 23rd-minute goal from Facundo Roncaglia, who fired home from outside of the Celta penalty area, before crossing for Jonathan Calleri to head home the second for the Pamplona-based outfit. Xinhua

Oman's crude oil production falls 7.5% in August

Oman recorded a daily average crude oil production of 957,300 barrels at the end of August 2020

MUSCAT: The Sultanate's oil production, including condensates, stood at 233.57 million barrels until the end of August 2020, according to the latest data released by the National Centre for Statistics and Information (NCSI).

Of the total production, crude oil production fell by 7.5 per cent at 190.91 million barrels while condensates production rose by 45.2 per cent to touch 42.66 million barrels.

Oman recorded a daily average crude oil production of 957,300 barrels at the end of August 2020, against 970,500 barrels over the same period of 2019, the NCSI report added. However, the average price of Oman crude fell by 26.3 per cent to reach $47.7 per barrel till the end of August 2020, from $64.7 per barrel in the same period of 2019.

The Sultanate exported 193.63 million barrels of crude oil till the end of August 2020, against 196.59 million barrels for the same period of 2019, falling by 1.5 per cent.

NCSI DATA: China retained its position as the leading destination for Sultanate's crude oil exports till the end of August 2020, with the country importing 171.06 million barrels of oil from Oman.

In terms of exports, China retained its position as the leading destination for Sultanate's crude oil exports till the end of August 2020, with the country importing 171.06 million barrels of crude oil from Oman.

This was followed by India (6.67 million barrels), South Korea (4.99 million barrels) and Japan (1.60 million barrels).

Oman produced 354.3 million barrels of oil and exported 310.3 million barrels in 2019. Besides, the country's daily oil production stood at 970,900 barrels last year.

Oman's natural gas production and imports fell 1.3 per cent to 30,348 million cubic metres (MNCM) at the end of August 2020, from 30,737 MNCM for the same period of 2019.

Of this, non-associated gas and imports rose by 1.3 per cent to 25,587 MNCM and associated gas production fell 13 per cent to 4,760 MNCM, added the NCSI report.

The use of natural gas in industrial projects fell by 6 per cent to reach 18,095 MNCM at the end of August 2020, against 19,251 MNCM for the same period of 2019. As much as 7,158 MNCM of natural gas was used in oil fields, against 6,229 MNCM units consumed for the same period of 2019. - ONA

WORLD-CLASS FACILITY

New data centre to revolutionise telecommunications in Oman

Times News Service

MUSCAT: Taking yet another major technological stride that will further revolutionise the future of telecommunications in Oman and the Middle East region, Omantel has announced the opening of MC1, an international data centre built in collaboration with Equinix – the world's digital infrastructure company.

The facility is the first world-class, carrier-neutral hub in Oman where carriers, content providers and cloud providers can colocate their critical IT infrastructure.

This state-of-the-art hub, an International Business Exchange (IBX) data centre, that has been opened in Barka is strategically located between Asia, Africa and Europe. MC1 will serve as a regional interconnection hub providing ultra-low latency connection points between key global business markets. The new facility benefits from direct connectivity to strategic cable landing stations (CLS) and subsea cable systems that terminate directly inside the facility, providing customers with increased performance and security, along with significant cost savings.

Talal Al Mamari, CEO of Omantel, said, "Today, data centre infrastructure sits at the heart of global ICT and enables all of us to enjoy the cloud-based apps and services we use every day. MC1 represents a significant step forward for Oman and the Middle Eastern ICT markets. We are delighted that the facility is now operational, and together with Equinix, we hope to enable a new era of telecommunications both regionally and globally. Coupled with the majority of the GCC's international submarine cables landing

This state-of-the-art hub, an International Business Exchange data centre, that has been opened in Barka, will serve as a regional interconnection hub providing ultra-low latency connection points between key global business markets in Oman, all accessible from the Equinix data centre, we believe this partnership will further enhance Oman's competitiveness in the global digital economy."

MC1 will provide customers with direct access to the Equinix Internet Exchange, creating a regional peering hub for networks, content providers and large enterprises to exchange internet traffic over the world's largest peering solution. MC1 is Equinix's first data centre in Oman and its fourth in the Mena region.

Joint venture with Equinix

Omantel entered into a joint venture with Equinix in 2018 to deliver data centre and interconnection services to customers in the Middle East through the development of the new network-dense data centre.

The resulting site, MC1, is operated by Equinix and includes 23,600+ square feet of colocation space and 725 cabinets. The site also can grow to 2,150+ cabinets with future IBX builds.

With subsea cable systems terminating directly in MC1, the site benefits from continued investments by Omantel in multiple strategic subsea cable systems throughout the world, reaching over 50 countries globally. Omantel currently has investments in more than 20 subsea cable systems and leverages six diverse landing stations in Oman and one in Marseille, France.

Eugene Bergen Henegouwen, President, EMEA, Equinix, said, "We are seeing accelerated demand for digital transformation in Mena. Across different sectors, organisations are reassessing their cloud adoption strategies and cloud readiness. In the digital age, companies need to reach all the right places and partners to seize the opportunity, and they need to do it out at the edge.

"Our partnership with Omantel greatly supports our ability to meet this need, particularly as our customers can now leverage Omantel's significant subsea cable infrastructure. This type of colocation and interconnection services platform creates a magnetic effect that draws in more users that can leverage a global subsea cable fabric connecting cities, countries and continents. Along with this, our investment in the Middle East market, including the new data centre in Oman, reflects our commitment to our customers as they continue their digital transformation journeys."

MINISTRY OF ENERGY AND MINERALS

New exploration and production pact signed

MUSCAT: The Ministry of Energy and Minerals signed a new Exploration and Production Sharing Agreement for having the right to explore and develop the concession Block 70, which occupies an overall area of 639 sqkm.

The agreement was signed on behalf of the government by Dr Mohammed bin Hamed Al Rumhy, Minister of Energy and Minerals, while Talal bin Saif Al-Subhi signed it on behalf of the Swedish Maha Energy (Oman) Company. The commitment of the company under the pact is for obtaining geological and geophysical studies, reprocess 3D seismic and drill appraisal and Pilot wells to evaluate and produce the heavy oil in Mafraq field in the block.

The ministry wishes the company's efforts will be successful in discovering hydrocarbons which will increase the reserves and the production in the country. - ONA

DOMESTIC NATURAL GAS

India's gas price cut will lower earnings of ONGC, Oil India

SINGAPORE: The recently announced 25 per cent reduction in domestic natural gas prices to 1.79 dollars per million British thermal units (MMBtu) from 2.39 dollars per MMBtu on a gross calorific value basis is credit negative for upstream companies like Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) and Oil India Ltd (OIL) as it will lower their revenue from gas sales, according to Moody's Investors Service.

These companies are already grappling with low oil prices and a further reduction in natural gas prices will lead to fall in their earnings. However, said Moody's, gas sales account for 18 to 19 per cent of the companies' upstream revenues.

After three consecutive price reductions in 12 months, India's gas prices are at their lowest level since November 2014.

"We estimate ONGC's revenue and EBITDA will decline by Rs 1,500 crore to 1,600 crores because of lower gas prices. The decline equates to around 0.4 per cent of the company's expected consolidated revenue and around 3.5 per cent of consolidated EBITDA for fiscal 2021," said Moody's.

However, ONGC's credit metrics have sufficient capacity to withstand the decline in gas prices. - ANI
