Times News Service

MUSCAT: Plans to create economically viable opportunities that help diversity and expand industries in the various governorates across Oman, and help enhance the GDP of the country, are to be launched on Monday by the Ministry of Commerce, Industry, and Investment Promotion (MOCIIP).

The move comes as part of the second package of investment opportunities in the industrial sector, and is aimed at bringing more investors to Oman.

It is also a key aspect of the Industrial Strategy 2040, which was founded to enable the ministry to search for investment opportunities in various industrial sectors, in collaboration with the Follow Up Unit for Oman Vision 2040, the Public Establishment for Industrial Estates, Petroleum Development Oman, Nama Holding, and Mazoon Dairy.

The inauguration ceremony will be sponsored by Qais bin Mohammed Al Yousef, the Minister of Commerce, Industry and Investment Promotion, in the presence of a number of ministry officials. Also in attendance will be ambassadors and consuls of foreign embassies in Oman, businessmen, investors, and representatives from the chambers of commerce from the other five countries of the GCC.

The new package of investment opportunities will also be helped by the ministry's Fast Track Initiative, which aims to speed up approval processes for investment projects planned for Oman. The initiative falls under the country's efforts to improve the current business environment, and also attract more foreign investors.

The Fast Track Initiative is part of the Invest in Oman campaign, which was launched on 20 March, 2021. It is aimed at enhancing and empowering the role of the private sector in leading economic development by attracting investments and supporting the development of exports in foreign markets.

"Through the Fast Track Initiative, the ministry seeks to accelerate the pace of completion of a number of investment projects that have come a long way, and are in need of support," said Asila bint Salim Al Samsamiyah, the Undersecretary for Investment Promotion at the ministry. "The team responsible sped up a number of projects by supporting them in the form of licences, allocating lands, signing usufruct rights, providing electricity connections, and looking at requests for tax exemptions." >A5

Three ‘booster shots’ for team Asia Lions

Three more celebrity ex-players to play for Asia Lions team in Howzat Legends League Cricket tournament

Times News Service

MUSCAT: When the Howzat Legends League Cricket tournament comes to Oman, it will benefit from the presence of three more celebrity ex-players in Sri Lanka’s Ajantha Mendis and Dilhara Fernando, and former Bangladesh skipper Habibul Bashar.

Taking place from 20 January at the Amerat cricket ground, the arrival of the three players will give the Lions a better chance at winning the Twenty20 tournament.

A former skipper for Bangladesh and opening batsman, Habibul Bashar is one of the most successful captains in the history of Bangladesh cricket.

With explosive batsmen like Shahid Afridi and Sanath Jayasuriya, Habibul Bashar will add to the opening batting options for the Asia Lions. With his tricky spin, Ajantha Mendis will be the most dangerous bowler for the opposing teams.

His carrom ball has troubled many a legendary batsman in the past, and he will greatly complement legendary spinner Muralidharan when the games begin in Oman.

The slower ball, meanwhile, is the main weapon of Dilhara Fernando. With the Rawalpindi Express Shoaib Akhtar featuring alongside Umar Gul and Chaminda Vaas, Dilhara Fernando is a good first change option for the team, along with all-rounder Azher Mehmood.

Ravi Shastri, the commissioner for Howzat Legends League Cricket said, “Habibul Bashar, Ajantha Mendis and Dilhara Fernando’s contribution to their country is huge and likewise, I feel they will also have an immense role to play in this league as well. I am looking forward to watching them play at the Howzat Legends League Cricket.”

CEO Raman Raheja said, “We are excited to have Habibul Bashar, Ajantha Mendis and Dilhara Fernando on board with the Asia Lions team. Their inclusion will bring in a lot of experience and diversity. I am sure they will set the stadium on fire.”

Legends League Cricket (LLC) has signed a partnership with Sony Pictures Networks India (SPN) to live telecast all the matches of the league to be played in January 2022, on SONY TEN 1 and SONY TEN 3 channels as well as to live-stream the matches in India on SPN’s premium OTT platform, SonyLIV. Times of Oman and TFM are the official local partners of the tournament.

The first season of Howzat LLC will have former cricketers from India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, Australia, and England, as well as other cricketing nations divided into three teams representing India, Asia and the rest of the world. Cricket fans all across the world will get to see the legends of cricket fight it out at their competitive best.

Award for architectural design launched

His Highness Sayyid Bilarab has affirmed that the award is being launched with the blessing of His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik. His Majesty hailed the idea of the competition and its directions and much-admired the goals it seeks, said HH Sayyid Bilarab. He assured that His Majesty's blessing is a motive for the award to strive and to achieve its visions and aspirations.

Sayyid Bilarab explained that the award stems from the idea of launching a local competition with a global vision, targeting Omani youth specialized in the fields of architecture and design. Moreover, to present modern architectural and urban designs with artistic visions that combine tradition and contemporary to develop a specific area in the Sultanate of Oman, elaborated.

The best of specialised Omani youth to be selected to compete and qualify to win the Bilarab Bin Haitham Architectural Design Award.

Empowering local

He added also that there are many goals the competition seeks to achieve, insisting that "the award targets Omani youth, so our mission and goals in this field lie in investing and empowering local architectural capabilities and skills, to develop different regions in the Sultanate of Oman which could contribute to achieve an added value. The competition perhaps is one of the appropriate ways to invest and empower these capabilities of young people in this aspect. It may also be a gateway for them to cross into the future with more creative ideas and aspirations, and this creativity we hope will be reflected on the ground."

Voice of young people

As for the objectives of the competition, HH Sayyid Bilarab affirmed that the ultimate goal is to listen to the voice of young people in a very special way, saying that "His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik underscored the necessity of paying attention and listening to the Omani youth. Thus, through this award and competition we will make sure to listen to the creative ideas of young people in an artistic way that seeks towards urban development and creativity in the fields of architecture and related design. On the other hand, we have made sure that there is a general goal for this award bearing the slogan: "Towards an innovative and contemporary Omani architectural style", and this goal may be closer to the artistic aspect; while not neglecting other goals related to the local community, or empowering and developing the capabilities of youth; the award is contributing to the realisation of the aspirations of Oman 2040 vision, through the outputs and developmental visions that the award will provide, whether for existing projects or creating new ones."

Omani architectural style

On the general objective of the award and its contents and connotations, HH Sayyid Bilarab confirmed that the Omani architectural style is rich as it enjoys great diversity in the various governorates of the Sultanate of Oman, and the nature and geography of the country have contributed to achieving this richness. The style of plain, as well as the style of the coast differ from the style of the interior regions, and perhaps designers have sought throughout the previous years to imitate those styles, so traditional projects and facilities based on the old urban style appeared in their design, and there are few who sought to develop them, or modernize them to make them well-urbanized while keeping pace with time' thus, the award is keen that presented proposals, perceptions and participations in its competition are innovative, contemporary, and sustainable at the same time, said HH Sayyid Bilarab

As far as the targeted groups are concerned, he explained that the award was keen to address the Omani youth of both genders. "Young Omani who are specialised in the fields of architecture, design and urban planning can participate in the announced competition, and we are keen not to extend the age group too much, and to regulate the age of the participants with no more than 35 years of age. We included job seekers and students, with the aim of providing a greater opportunity for young people in this age; avoiding their competing with older age groups who may have more experience in this field," HH Sayyid Bilarab further explained.

Hob seekers and students

He said that this award competition is an opportunity for young people towards creativity, and the award allows young people to participate in its competition either individually or in a team of no more than three people; who can collectively submit their proposal bearing their names, taking into account the commitment to the conditions of the competition.

Regarding the new feature that distinguishes Bilarab Bin Haitham Award for Architectural Design from other awards; HH Sayyid Bilarab stated that "since the beginning of the thought of launching this award, we had a vision for this award to be different from its local counterparts.

Winning project

"Therefore, the idea was to focus on what happens after the announcement of the winner of the award; and particularly on the outcome of the winning project. Thus, we were keen that the idea was to utilise the project, implement it and follow it up, whether through investment, or through the relevant governing agencies, where the award worked in coordination with these bodies. The matter is that, we will make sure the winning project sees the light of day in any location in the Sultanate of Oman."

Participation

As for the conditions of participation in the Award competition; he stated that "we have made sure that these conditions are simple and free of complexity, in order to involve the largest possible number of young people in the competition; in addition to the main condition that participation is limited to Omani youth who are not over 35 years old. In general, it was necessary for the participants to be familiar with the architectural design and presentation programs, since these programmes are the ones to be relied upon in such projects. There are also some technical conditions that participating groups can refer to, whether on the award's website, or through its pages on social media platforms."

Ten contestants

Regarding the prizes monitored by the Bilarab Bin Haitham Architectural Design Award for those who will have the opportunity to qualify for the final stage; HH Sayyid Bilarab affirmed that "we have studied many options in this regard, and we sought for the awards to be equivalent to the efforts of those who will reach the coronation stage; and we would like to point out that there are ten competitors who will qualify for the final stage, and this stage, according to the plan, is concerned with submitting proposals to the jury or committee, where each contestant must submit a presentation to the committee about his project ideas, proposals, and technical perceptions within a period of time. And the jury has the right to discuss it in all the details, and in the end, three winners of those ten contestants will be awarded with big prizes".

Regarding what the award will add to society in general, His Highness explained that "since the first indications of thinking about launching this award, there was a tendency for the award to have an added value, whether it was on society, on the contestants or on the business sector in general. What the award envisioned was that it would provide the opportunity for small and medium-sized enterprises to benefit from the projects that would be developed or established, through the establishment of service outlets provided by some of these institutions run by Omani youth, such as cafes, food shops, antiques and souvenir shops or other activities that are commensurate with each project being implemented and developed. As for the added value of the participants in the competition; the award also aims to hold and implement technical workshops for participants in the areas it targets, and we hope that these workshops will provide the participants with new skills and knowledge. On the community level, it is hoped that the award will contribute to adding aesthetic touches and developing vital sites to form an outlet for the audience to spend beautiful times with their families and companions".

Competition cycle

As for the competition cycle and the timing of its organisation, HH Sayyid Bilarab explained, "The plan for this award is to be held annually, which prompted us to realize that our dear country is very vast; and one of the axioms that the award emphasises is its circumvention of all parts of Oman. This will only be possible by the continuity of this award. Therefore, we decided that the award should have an annual cycle targeting each year a certain governorate, a specific geographic space, or a different architectural style. We are keen that the award will leave its positive impact in all parts of our country, and have a contribution to the development of a facility, the modernization of a specific tourist attraction or creating a new facility with a creative vision that is environmentally friendly.

Qualitative leap

At the end of his statements, HH Sayyid Bilarab addressed the Omani youth by saying that "this award was created for you, and you are qualified to present your suggestions, visions and ideas through which you seek to make a qualitative leap in the architecture and design sector. Therefore, the field is open to you towards creativity, proficiency, and unprecedented perceptions. Moreover, we will not hesitate to study any proposal submitted to us that meets the technical conditions set by the jury." His Highness stressed that "homelands are built only with the hands of their generations, and we can consider this award as an invitation to build our country, as the field is open to young people, who are worthy of their visions and aspirations in this regard." - ONA erations, once their shutdown periods ended," he explained.

"We have optimised state-of-the-art tech and facilities to achieve our objectives and execute our operations, so that we may achieve our targeted goals."

Al Farsi added: "Duqm Airport has also played its role in increasing inbound tourism due to the availability of scheduled flights and luxurious hotel facilities. This has encouraged so many tourists from Oman and abroad to visit Duqm and enjoy its round-the-year pleasant weather. Since the opening of the new terminal in 2019, the airport has received around 2,152 flights up to the end of 2021, and around 136,755 travelers have benefited during the same timeframe."

Oman Airports, in cooperation with its strategic partners has executed several emergency drills since the opening of the airport as part of its efforts to upgrade its readiness to address any emergencies under an annual emergency plan in place for all airports operated by Oman Airports, and in accordance with modern standards.

Duqm Airport has been equipped with modern systems of communications, information technology, security monitoring systems, and air navigation and meteorology systems which make the airport capable of handling various either from the Sultanate, or overseas.

Duqm Airport is located 14km from Duqm town, and can be easily accessed from the southern part of the city through Sultan Qaboos Road, which is located towards the left side of the airport roundabout.

It accommodates half a million passengers, with future expansion plans to accommodate two million passengers each year.

Catalysts to support economy

Al Samsamiyah, who is also the chairperson of the National Investment Programme, added: "This programme is an accelerator for the first phase of Oman 2040, which is linked to both the economy and development. Together with the financial sustainability programme, this is one of the catalysts designed to support the national economy.

"Fast tracked projects move towards rapid interventions by technical committees and work teams to enable investment projects to efficiently begin their operations in Oman," she said.

In the first stage of operations, projects worth OMR2.779 billion were identified by the Fast Track Initiative, spread across renewable energy, industry, mining, tourism, logistics, and food security.

Investment projects are provided support across several stages: they are first reviewed and studied for evaluation, and those areas that require support and then provided accordingly. Following this, a form is filled to highlight the views of the technical committee, as well as any further support required from them.

Field visits to the projects in question are then organised, so that investors' needs can be identified and met, which enables them to contribute towards the growth of Oman. With inputs from ONA

LIFT BAN

Taliban welcomes UN chief's call to lift ban on fund

KABUL: Taliban on Friday welcomed remarks of the United Nations Secretary-General Antonio Guterres calling on the international community to lift a ban on Afghan assets, over the international community to quickly provide assistance to the central bank of Afghanistan and do more to inject liquidity in the country's economy to avoid a collapse in 2022. "We appreciate the UN Secretary General's call for the release of Afghan capital from the United States," spokesman Zabihullah Mujahid said in a Tweet. On Thursday, the UN Chief called on the international community to quickly provide assistance to the central bank of Afghanistan and do more to inject liquidity in the country's economy to avoid a collapse in 2022.

"The function of Afghanistan's central bank must be preserved and assisted, and a path identified for conditional release of Afghan foreign currency reserves," Sputnik quoted Guterres statement. "We must do even more to rapidly inject liquidity into the economy and avoid a meltdown that would lead to poverty, hunger and destitution for millions," Guterres added. Following the Taliban takeover in mid-August, the US froze nearly 10 billion dollars in Afghanistan's assets and slapped sanctions on the Islamic Emirate. In the meantime, the stoppage of foreign aids to Afghanistan has crippled the already fragile economic system of Afghanistan and has adversely affected the lives of millions of people. ANI

PEACEKEEPING FORCE

Russian troops return after deployment in Kazakhstan

MOSCOW: The Russian Defence Ministry said on Saturday that its troop contingent sent to Kazakhstan to help stop violent unrest in the central Asian country has returned home. The Russian troops were part of a "peacekeeping force" numbering around 2,000 deployed by the Collective Treaty Security Organization (CSTO), which is a Russia-led coalition made up of six former Soviet states, including Belarus, Armenia, Tajikistan and Kyrgyzstan. Russia's defence ministry tweeted that the troops and equipment had arrived, saying all planes with Russian peacekeepers from the "collective peacekeeping forces of the CSTO" arrived from Kazakhstan at the Severny airfield near the Siberian city of Novosibirsk. The CSTO began a phased withdrawal of troops on Wednesday, which is set to continue until January 19. It is unclear if troops from other CSTO countries remain in Kazakhstan. The demonstrations morphed into wider discontent against President Tokayev's government. In Almaty, the former capital and largest city in Kazakhstan, protesters set fire to government buildings and briefly took control of the airport. Tokayev announced a state of emergency and gave a shoot-to-kill order to security forces — sparking international condemnation. The president also claimed the protests were sparked by foreign-backed "terrorists" but did not provide any evidence. The Health Ministry briefly reported that over 160 people had been killed in the unrest, although the report was later deleted without a reason being provided. Dozens of people were also injured. Around 12,000 people have been arrested in the aftermath of the demonstrations. —DW

Virat Kohli steps down as India's Test captain

Last year, Kohli had stepped down as the T20I captain and then he was removed as the ODI leader

NEW DELHI: Virat Kohli on Saturday announced that he is stepping down as the captain of the Indian Test team.

Last year, Kohli had stepped down as the T20I captain and then he was removed as the ODI leader as the selectors wanted one captain for the white-ball format.

"It's been 7 years of hard work, toil and relentless perseverance everyday to take the team in the right direction. I've done the job with absolute honesty and left nothing out there. Every thing has to come to a halt at some stage and for me as Test Captain of India, it's now. There have been many ups and also some downs along the journey, but never has there been a lack of effort or lack of belief. I have always believed in giving my 120 percent in everything I do, and if I can't do that, I know it's not the right thing to do. I have absolute clarity in my heart and I cannot be dishonest to my team," Kohli said in a statement.

"I want to thank the BCCI for giving me the opportunity to lead my country for such a long period of time and more importantly to all the teammates who bought into the vision I had for the team from day one and never gave up in any situation. You guys have made this journey so memorable and beautiful. To Ravi Bhai and the support group who were the engine behind this vehicle that moved us upwards in Test Cricket consistently, you all have played a massive role in bringing this vision to life. Lastly, a big thank you to MS Dhoni who believed in me as a Captain and found me to be an able individual who could take Indian Cricket forward," he added.

Kohli's decision to leave Test captaincy comes a day after India lost the three-match Test series against South Africa on Friday.

Virat Kohli's biggest win in the longest format came during 2018-19 as India won its first Test series against South Africa on Friday.

It needs to be pointed that Kohli has not registered a century in international cricket since November 2019. He last scored a ton against Bangladesh in the day-night Test at the Eden Gardens. ANI

AL-MANAR RACING

Fifth place for Al-Zubair and Al-Manar racing by HRT Team in Dubai 24H

Times News Service

DUBAI: Oman's Al-Faisal Al-Zubair and the Al-Manar Racing by HRT Team claimed fifth position in the Hankook 24H Dubai at the Dubai Autodrome on Saturday afternoon.

Al-Zubair teamed up with Dutchman Indy Dontje, Germany's driver Luca Stolz and Austrian Martin Konrad in the second of two Mercedes-AMG GT3's run by the Haupt Racing Team. They finished seven laps behind the leading Audi R8 LMS GT3 after completing 589 tours of the Dubai circuit.

The sister Abu Dhabi Racing by HRT car finished fourth in the hands of team owner Hubert Haupt, Khaled Al-Qubaisi, Raffaele Marciello and Manuel Metzger, with the outright race win after 596 laps and 24 hours of demanding racing falling to MS7 by WRT's Mohammed Saud Fahad Al-Saud, Axcil Jefferies, Dries Vanthoor, Christopher Mies and Thomas Neubauer.

Al-Zubair said: "The race was a very good one, definitely a tough one, and we needed two cars. Coming into the Pro category, we knew there was going to be a lot of tough teams. But from practice and qualifying, my team did a really great job, the team and all the drivers.

"We really felt that we had a chance for the win but we had fuel pump issues and lost three laps. From then on, the chance of victory had gone. Definitely a tough one, but finishing fifth out of 82 cars and in the Pro category in my first 24 Hours is something that I should feel proud of."

The crew began the race strongly and held fifth place throughout much of the first sector behind the two WRT and MS7 by WRT Audis, their third-placed team-mates in the Abu Dhabi Racing by HRT Mercedes and Barwell Motorsport's Lamborghini Huracan.

With just over six hours of the race run, the leading Audi had completed 133 laps and Al Manar Racing's Mercedes was a mere one and a half laps adrift. The team pitted soon afterwards and slipped to 12 th with Al-Zubair taking over driving duties into the early evening. The Omani was swiftly back up to 11th.

With less than 10 hours to go, as dawn broke over the Dubai circuit, the had climbed back to fifth place with Al-Zubair at the wheel, 343 laps into the race and two laps behind. But the quartet were not able to reduce the deficit during the morning and through the closing stages of the race and were forced to settle for fifth overall.

The team qualified the Mercedes-AMG GT3 in third place on Friday afternoon with an average of the best three laps of 1min 59.060sec. Pole position fell to Team WRT's Audi R8 LMS GT3, with Al-Zubair's team-mates Haupt, Al-Qubaisi, Marciello and Metzger lining up in second place on the front row of the grid.

The Al-Manar Racing Mercedes was a mere 0.375 seconds off pole position.

Teams were then permitted to carry out night-time practice on the Dubai Autodrome circuit. The Al-Manar racing Mercedes ran for 35 laps and was classified in sixth place with the fastest lap of the session set by Sainteloc Racing's Audi R8 LMS GT3.

'Australian Open will be great with or without Novak Djokovic'

MELBOURNE: Rafael Nadal on Saturday said the Australian Open is much more important than any one player while talking about his rival Novak Djokovic, who is currently fighting deportation from Australia.

Ahead of the start of the season's first Grand Slam on Monday, Nadal at Melbourne Park in his pre-event press conference said: "Australian Open will be a great Australian Open with or without him."

Currently, nine-time Australian Open champion Novak Djokovic is still in the draw to defend his title in Melbourne after the Serbian's visa was cancelled on Friday by Hawke, the Australian Minister for Immigration, Citizenship, Migrant Services, and Multicultural Affairs. Djokovic is placed against compatriot Miomir Kecmanovic in the opening round.

When asked about how different AO 2022 would look with Djokovic in the draw and without him, Rafa said: "I tell you one thing, it's very clear that Novak Djokovic is one of the best players of the history, without a doubt."

"But there is no one player in history that's more important than an event, no? The players stays and then goes, and other players are coming. No one, even Roger, Novak, myself, Bjorn Borg, who was amazing at his times, tennis keep going. Australian Open is much more important than any player. If he's playing finally, okay. If he's not playing, Australian Open will be great Australian Open with or without him. That's my point of view," the Spaniard added.

Notably, long-time rivals Novak Djokovic and Rafael Nadal are in the same half of the men's singles draw at the Australian Open 2022, putting them on track for a blockbuster semifinal clash, if the defending champion is not deported. ANI

Bank Muscat posts net profit of OMR189.63mn

Net interest income from conventional banking and net income from Islamic financing stood at OMR335.54 million for 2021 compared to OMR322.13 million in 2020

MUSCAT: Bank Muscat, the flagship financial institution in the Sultanate, has announced its preliminary unaudited results for the year ended 31 December 2021. The financial results are subject to external audit and approval of the Board of Directors, Central Bank of Oman and shareholders of the bank.

The bank posted a net profit of OMR189.63 million for the year compared to OMR163.36 million reported during the same period in 2020, an increase of 16.1 per cent, mainly due to higher operating income and lower impairment charges.

The key highlights of the results for the period are as follows:

Net interest income from conventional banking and net income from Islamic financing stood at OMR335.54 million for the year ended 31 December 2021 compared to OMR322.13 million for the same period in 2020, an increase of 4.2 per cent.

Net Impairment for credit and other losses for the year 2021 was OMR60.22 million as against OMR81.04 million for the same period in 2020. The decrease is mainly attributed to the precautionary and collective provisions created by the bank during the first half of 2020, due to the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic and the historic decline seen in global crude oil prices. The bank remains vigilant of the continuing stress in the macroeconomic and business conditions and its potential impacts.

Net loans and advances including Islamic financing receivables increased by 2.3 per cent to OMR9,187 million as against OMR8,983 million as of 31 December 2020.

Customer deposits including Islamic customer deposits increased by 3.7 per cent to OMR8,775 million as against OMR8,459 million as of 31 December 2020.

The full results for the year ended 31 December 2021 along with the complete set of unaudited financial statements will be released following the approval of the Board of Directors of the Bank at its meeting scheduled later during January 2022.

FUN WAYS TO INTRODUCE PHYSICS TO KIDS

When many of us think of physics, we think of high-level science courses taught in high school and college. The truth is that not only can you teach your child the basic principles of this branch of science at a young age, but doing so can help them understand the world around them, while laying the groundwork for a continued interest in STEAM learning.

AT HOME
There are many ways to demonstrate basic principles of physics using household objects. However, toys designed for this purpose can be good launching pad for your quest for knowledge.

The new line of marble playsets allows kids to build thrilling marble courses, send marbles into motion and compete in exciting challenges with lights and sounds. Added bonus? You'll be introducing engineering principles at the same time! Each set contains colour-coded blocks and easy-to-follow building instructions for kids to create a variety of beginner to advanced courses, or create their own course with endless possibilities.

The Marble Rush Ultimate Set and Marble Rush Launchpad Set can also be combined to create an extreme playset. Plus, the Marble Rush playsets have received the Toy Association's STEAM Toy Accreditation seal of approval, meeting experts' criteria for a good STEAM toy.

Families can find course design instructions, along with super cool challenges that demonstrate specific physics concepts like force and friction. For more information, visit vtechkids.com/marblerush.

ON-THE-GO
Physics truly is all around us, which means there are always opportunities to introduce concepts while on-the-go. Here are a few ideas to get you started:

- At a sporting event: Talk about how the ball flies through the air because of the force the athlete applied to it. Discuss how gravity is at the same time, pulling the ball down toward Earth, and how friction from the air around the ball applies a force that slows it down.
- In the car: The car is the perfect place to demonstrate the Doppler Effect and learn about sound. The next time you drive past music, a car alarm or other source of noise, ask your child to observe the way that it sounds as you get closer to it and then how it sounds as you move away from it again. Explain that the noise itself hasn't changed, but your perception of it has because sound waves are moving differently from the point of view of the observer -- you.

- On a walk: The next time you're on a walk, talk about how even the seasons can be explained by physics. The part of Earth where you live is tilted away from the sun right now, which means that sunlight is more indirect. This is also why the days are shorter this time of year! It's never too early to bring science to life for kids. There are not only real-world examples of physics at play to discover, but new toys can make learning about these concepts a fun, exciting adventure.

Oman International Hospital gets accredited with EFQM Certification

European Foundation for Quality Management (EFQM) certification is awarded to distinguished organisations that follow an assessment framework based on the ‘Excellence Model’ and have met their established objectives

MUSCAT: Oman International Hospital, the multi-super speciality hospital in Oman, made history by becoming the first recipient of the prestigious European Foundation for Quality Management (EFQM) certification in the region.

European Foundation for Quality Management certification is awarded to distinguish organisations that follow an assessment framework based on the ‘Excellence Model’ and have met their established objectives.

Organisations that are EFQM certified, perform better by creating data-driven insights backed up by organisational experts to fit priorities, purposes and people.

Dr José Alexandre Cunha,

Board Member of Oman International Hospital and Chairman of IGHS Group that manages the hospital said, “We have been in operation for just little over a year in Oman and to be accredited with this certification as the first hospital in the region truly speaks volumes of our commitment and dedication to make this hospital an impeccable landmark in Oman’s healthcare sector. I am truly proud of this recognition for Oman International Hospital.”

He added, “This certification not only reassures the people of Oman the highest standards of treatment when they visit us but also motivates us to better ourselves to earn more such international recognitions. My sincere thanks go to Oman’s Ministry of Health and other government sectors that have been supporting us.”

Marcelo Pereira, CEO of OIH said, “We are thrilled to have achieved the EFQM certification. What better recognition there can be than getting this accreditation just as the young hospital completes its first year?”

“The certification reiterates our commitment to delivering the highest quality of treatment, services and facilities to the people of Oman and the region.”

OIH was officially inaugurated on 6 January 2022 by Dr Ahmed Mohammed Al Saidi, Minister of Health in the presence of Abdul Salam Mohammed Al Murshidi, Executive President of Oman Investment Authority, Her Highness Basma Al Said, Sheikha Amal Suhail Bahwan, Chairperson of Al Afia Healthcare Development and Investment company and Vice Chairperson of Suhail Bahwan Group Holding, several ambassadors and distinguished guests.

Oman International Hospital is a joint venture by Suhail Bahwan Group Holding, Oman Brunei Investment Company and IdealMed GHS, Portugal.

The high-profile event started with a ceremonial ribbon-cutting by the chief guest Dr Ahmed Mohammed Al Saidi, Minister of Health declaring the hospital fully open with all its services and treatments available to the people of Oman.

OIH is the home to five Excellence Centers, a hybrid operation theatre and several other cutting-edge features and facilities. The expert doctors, nurses and paramedical staff of the hospital are drawn from Oman and across the globe and are highly experienced.

The sprawling 42,000 Sq meters hospital is equipped with state-of-the-art equipment and cutting-edge technological solutions from across the world and is strategically located in the centre of capital Muscat’s Al Ghubra area, just across the road from the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, Oman International Hospital is easily accessible from any part of the city.

YOUBUILT

MUSCAT: Youbuilt, an innovative mobile application is the latest launch by Sagacity Pioneer Co. in tune with Oman’s 2040 vision. The application aims to ease the sale, service, maintenance and purchase of building material in the construction industry. It also helps in procuring estimates or quotations for new construction projects.

Available on iOS and Android platforms, Youbuilt is an application that is necessary for individuals and contractors indulged in construction projects. Building material retailers, service and maintenance providers of the construction industry also gain increased sales by registering their business on Youbuilt.

Youbuilt is the brainchild of Roshin Rajan, an entrepreneur, visionary and philanthropist, who wanted to mould an application of global standards that will revolutionise the construction industry through the use of the latest technology. With more than 12 years of experience at the helm of the construction business, Roshin Rajan wanted to put his knowledge and ideas to the best use for the growth of the industry and economy in Oman. Roshin’s knowledge in construction is deep-rooted as it is a family business established by his father G. Rajan, with over 36 years of operation in Oman. Roshin’s vision and efforts are supported by Is’haq saif Khalfan Al Hasni to the success of this unique concept.

According to Roshin Rajan, founder of Youbuilt, “Our main objective to launch the innovative application is to take part in the Oman 2040 vision and reach out to every corner of the Sultanate of Oman.” He also added, “Our vision is to become digital service providers for the local businesses, mid enterprises & Corporates in Oman and to connect the local Omani retailers to customers via digital platform across the country. Our aim is also to generate more job and income opportunities for Omani nationalities.”

Roshin Rajan is also working on a couple of innovative digital projects involving artificial intelligence and 3D construction technology, which will be unveiled shortly. ‘Mount Oman’ is one of the projects in the pipeline that will help in the construction of high-end tourism projects as an application, while ‘Youbuilt’ budget homes is another project aimed at the construction of residential houses at affordable prices. www.youbuilt.online gives you more insights into the services offered by the application.

Kalyan Jewellers launches men’s jewellery collection ‘Bangarraju’

MUSCAT: Kalyan Jewellers, one of India’s leading and most-trusted jewellery brands has partnered with Annapurna Studios to launch the ‘Bangarraju’ men’s jewellery collection, ahead of the much-awaited Sankranti release of the Akkineni Nagarjuna and Naga Chaitanya movie.

The long Navaratna ‘haram’ and the iconic Puligoruharam worn by the father-son duo, in ‘Bangarraju’, is from the personal collection of the legend Akkineni Nageswara Rao, or ANR as he is lovingly known in the region. Through the Bangarraju movie, ‘The King of Style’ Nagarjuna, has brought into vogue the PancheKattu (dhoti drape), Puligoru & Navaratna Haram – style that once defined the timeless ANR look.

Puligoru, which means tiger claw, is a traditional masculine design signifying courage and is part of the cultural ethos and legacy of this region. The nine precious gemstones in the Navaratna ‘haram’ on the other hand, symbolises purity, humility, awakening, contentment, courage, love, wisdom, compassion and health. Kalyan Jewellers has recreated these two iconic pieces from the Akkineni family collection, giving fans a chance to recreate and embrace the iconic look.

Talking about this association, Kalyan Jewellers brand ambassador & ‘Bangarraju’ lead, Akkineni

Nagarjuna said in a video message, “My father has always been my inspiration, and this traditional look that I have recreated for the movie Bangarraju is a tribute to him – even the jewellery that I wear in the movie, is originally his. Ahead of the release of the film, this traditional look seems to have appealed to the audiences, and that is how Kalyan Jewellers came on board to recreate Nana Garu’s haram designs.”

Talking about the announcement, Ramesh Kalyanaraman, Executive Director – Kalyan

Jewellers said, “We consider it an honour to be able to reproduce the iconic jewellery pieces that once belonged to Nageshwara Garu. As a brand, we have always followed a hyper-local product and outreach strategy. We have encouraged our patrons to not only take pride in their traditional designs but also to embrace them in style – and when it comes to style, there is none that does it as wonderfully as The King (Akkineni Nagarjuna) himself. This is our special Sankranti offering to our customers.”
