MESSAGES

HM receives National Day greetings

MUSCAT: His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik has received greetings from Gen. Sultan Mohammed Al Nu'amani, Minister of the Royal Office, Head of Office of the Supreme Commander, Sayyid Khalid Hilal Al Busaidi, Minister of the Diwan of Royal Court, Sheikh Abdulamlak Abdullah Al Khalili, Chairman of the State Council and Khalid Hilal Al Maawali, Chairman of the Shura Council and Lt. Gen. Hassan Mohsin Al Shuraigi, Inspector General of Police and Customs, on the occasion of the 51st Glorious National Day.

In his message, Al Nu'amani said: Your Majesty, the Supreme Commander, may the Almighty Allah protect you.

"With our dear homeland Oman nowadays bedecked in an attire of dignity and grandeur, on the same memorable date—a date deeply engrained in the heart of all those who live on this benign land—it is time to celebrate a renewed, pridesworthy anniversary. Year after year, the magnificent edifice named Oman has been constructed by the sincere hands of its loyal citizens. The 51st National Day is time to celebrate the rebirth of a great nation. >A16

RENEWED RENAISSANCE: OMAN MARKS 51ST NATIONAL DAY TODAY

The event comes at a time when Omanis look back at their achievements and brace for further accomplishments under the astute leadership of His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik

MUSCAT: The Sultanate of Oman will mark on Thursday the 51st National Day, the 18th of November Anniversary.

The event comes around at a time when Omanis ponder about the achievements made so far and brace for further accomplishments, with firm resolve, under the astute leadership of His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik who pledged to hold high the banner of Renewed Renaissance, since he assumed power in the country on 11 January 2020.

The Renewed Renaissance kicked off on a high note when His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik called upon the people of Oman to do their best to enrich domestic development and foster progress in all fields.

This is considered one of the major principles of Renewed Renaissance in its quest to attain the supreme national objective of "making Oman the central point in all that we strive to achieve"—an objective whose salient features already materialised in terms of updated laws and refurbished programmes of action across all sectors.

In the beginning of this year, a Royal Decree No. 6/2021, promulgated the (updated) Basic Law of the State to serve as a basic pillar of continuous efforts to shape a better future for Oman and its citizens and to build a solid ground for their Renewed Renaissance.

The Basic Law of the State comprises 98 articles "enhancing the institutions of the State, safeguarding its territorial unity and its social texture, protecting its cultural foundations and consolidating public rights, liberties and duties".

The Basic Law of the State lays down a stable mechanism of transfer of rule, which reflects positively on political and economic aspects and affirms the principle of sovereignty and independence of the judiciary. It also serves as a basis of rule in the State. It makes education compulsory till the end of the Basic Education stage. It establishes a scholarly method for thought, development of talents and encouragement of innovation—which all conform with Oman Vision 2040.

Articles (5) to (11) of the Basic Law of the State organise the mechanism of entitlement or succession to the throne in the Sultanate of Oman and makes it more clear and straightforward. Article (5) states that "The system of rule is Sultani and hereditary within the male descendants of Sultan Turki bin Said bin Sultan, in accordance with the following terms: Rule is handed down from the Sultan to his eldest son, then to the eldest son of the son, and henceforth, layer by layer. If the eldest son dies before assuming power, the rule shall pass down to his eldest son. If the deceased has brothers and in case the one entitled to the throne has no sons, the power shall be transferred to his eldest brother. If he (the deceased) has no brothers, the power to rule shall be transferred to the eldest son of his eldest brother. >A16

Omanis feel proud over progress made by the Sultanate in 51 years

Citizens have sent their greetings to His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik, the government and the countrymen on this auspicious occasion

Times News Service

MUSCAT: As the Sultanate of Oman celebrates its 51st National Day, citizens and residents are filled with gratitude over the progress achieved by this beautiful country under the wise leadership of its leaders. Moadh Al Saeedi, from the Wilayat of Al Khabourah in North Al Batinah Governorate, a student of Sultan Qaboos University, expressed his happiness on the occasion of the 51st National Day of the Renaissance.

He said: "The 51st National Day is an occasion that has a special place in the heart of every Omani. It is a great day and this occasion is dear to my heart. It fills my heart with spontaneous joy as I witness the achievements under the wise leadership of late His Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Said bin Taimour, during the last 49 years and then under His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik."

He continued that the Sultanate has attained a distinguished position among the neighbouring countries and the world in all fields and at the political, economic, social, scientific and technological levels.

Al Saeedi added that it is a wonderful feeling as you notice the growth the Sultanate has achieved during the 51 years.

He said: "As a student of Sultan Qaboos University, whenever I enter the university campus on special occasions, I remember it has been possible due to the late Sultan Qaboos bin Said. Thousands have graduated from this university that bears the name of Late His Majesty and are currently working in government and private institutions. They are participating in building the nation and serving citizens and residents on this good land. The construction of the university began in 1982, and it received its first batch of students in 1986."

Al Saeedi confirmed: "We are the youth, the wheel of the development of the economy, and we are its fuel and its radiant torch. We will also work on raising awareness and educating the family and society, and all of this is due to the achievements of the wise leadership and the government during the 51 years, and accordingly we celebrate this day to translate our happiness with what has been accomplished and that we continue to progress, and prosper."

Naif Al Sinani from the Wilayat of Saham in the Governorate of North Al Batinah, a teacher in one of the schools in the Wilayat, also expressed his feelings on the occasion of the 51st National Day of the Renaissance.

He said: "I am very happy on this occasion. I have graduated from the Sultan Qaboos University, which is one of the prestigious universities bearing the name of the late His Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Said bin Taimour. 13 years after my graduation in 2008, I am serving my country and my community by educating students and community."

Al Sinani added: "Streets, alleys, houses and buildings are adorned everywhere in the good land of Oman in celebration of this happy occasion and in celebration of the state's achievements during the last 51 years."

Naif Al Sinani sent his greetings to His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik, the national government and the Omani people on this auspicious occasion.

Rashid Al Hakmani from North Al Sharqiyah Governorate, said: "When we see the achievements made by the Sultanate in all fields and at the Gulf, Arab and international levels, I feel happy and pleased, and I enjoy this by celebrating the 51st National Day of the Renaissance with my family, friends and colleagues at work."

Al Hakmani sent his greetings to His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik, the government, the Omani people and all those residing on the good land of Oman.

Ahmed Al Rawas from Dhofar Governorate, said, "I am very proud to be a citizen of the Sultanate of Oman, as the Sultanate's achievements and its role in laying the foundations of peace and love among everyone in the world and participating in international, Gulf and Arab organisations and associations who support all efforts that serve man and the earth. This has been possible due to the wise leadership that we enjoy and to the peace loving Omani people, who are generous and loved by everyone."

Al Rawas sent his wishes to His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik, to the government and the Omani people inside and outside the Sultanate, and to residents of the Sultanate on the occasion of the 51st National Day of the Renaissance.

51ST GLORIOUS NATIONAL DAY

< FROM A8 HM receives greetings, good wishes

History has been witness to the evolution of a grand portrait of this noble nation, depicted by citizens who are faithful to Allah, the nation and the Sultan. The valiant held high the banner of Oman where humans are empowered and lofty values deeply rooted. Oman has propagated messages of peace and humanitarianism in all parts of the world, thanks to its balanced policies of dialogue and non-interference in the internal affairs of others.

Your Majesty, may Allah protect you.

Under Your Majesty's wise leadership, Oman is pressing ahead with its march of progress. Its people, rallying in tight-packed columns and armed with faith in the Almighty Allah, prove their aptitude to stand any exceptional test because their solidarity is stronger than all calamities.

Your Majesty,

We at Your Majesty's Royal Office, are all honoured to renew the pledge of allegiance and vow to remain as honest guards for this nation, sacrificing everything dear in defending it. We pray to the Almighty Allah to grant Your Majesty continuous good health and assist you with His divine care."

In his message, Sayyid Khalid said:

Your Majesty, Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik, may Allah protect you.

"November days are reminiscent of happy celebrations and today we mark the 51st Glorious National Day. The people of Oman, inspired by Your Majesty's wise leadership, aspire for further progress and prosperity.

Greeting Your Majesty on this auspicious occasion, the personnel of the Diwan of Royal Court are honoured to renew the pledge of allegiance and loyalty and vow to exert their best effort in performing their national duty.

Your Majesty,

The 18th of November anniversary is an embodiment of comprehensive renaissance and development whose roadmap was charted by the late Sultan Qaboos Bin Said, May the Almighty Allah have mercy on his soul.

Oman takes pride in the Royal tradition that Your Majesty has established for the continuation of therenaissancemarch so that citizens and residents could savour the riches of progress in an atmosphere of dignity and serenity.

May the Almighty Allah assist Your Majesty with divine care, grant you good health and guard you as a symbol of pride for this nation." Sheikh Abdulmalik expressed deep delight and pride over the achievements brought about in Oman since His Majesty the Sultan took the reins of power on 11 January 2020. "We aspire for a more prosperous future, following the reforms that Your Majesty has made, including the issuance of a new Basic Law of the State setting mechanisms for the transfer of power and the appointment of a Crown Prince and the restructuring of government departments," said Sheikh Abdulmalik, noting that the reforms seek to meet the demands of the future stage of development.

Sheikh Abdulmalik said that the 51st Glorious National Day is the anniversary of celebration of accomplishments made on the domestic front, as well as the country's stature in the regional and international arenas as a member of the world community that is keen on empowering justice and advocating dialogue and tolerance.

In his greetings to His Majesty the Sultan, Sheikh Abdulmalik expressed admiration for the Royal directives to the government to go ahead with projects of the 10th Five Year Plan—the first step in Oman Vision 2040, as well as the Fiscal Balance Plan, the Economic Stimulus Plan and legislations to promote partnership between the government and private sectors.

The procedures, he said, place Oman on the right track for sustainable national development catering to the diversification of sources of income, the development of the labour market and recruitment climate and preparation of Oman—under themes of Renewed Renaissance—to address challenges and pursue nation building with firm resolve.

Al Maawali said: "On my own behalf and on behalf of members of the Shura Council, I am honoured to greet Your Majesty on the 51st National Day, wishing that the Almighty Allah would protect you and grant you good health and a long life." Al Maawali expressed his appreciation of the Royal directives of His Majesty the Sultan to accelerate the pace of services, the employment of youth and the devising of elaborate plans and programmes. — ONA

OMANI LIFE

< FROM A8 Sultanate stands out as democracy based on Shura

If the latter has no sons, then the rule shall be transferred to the eldest nephew of his other brothers, in accordance with age of the brothers. If the one entitled to the throne has no brothers or nephews, the rule shall be transferred to the uncles and then to their sons in accordance with the sequence indicated in the Second Clause of this Article. It is a condition that the Crown Prince to assume power shall be a Muslim and the legitimate son of the Omani Muslim parents".

Article (6) regulates the establishment of a Guardianship Council in case the power to rule is transferred to an heir aged below 21 years. The Guardianship Council exercises the powers of the Sultan provided the Sultan appoints prior to his death. If the Sultan does not appoint a Guardianship Council before he dies, then the Ruling Family's Council appoints a Guardianship Council comprising one of the brothers of the Sultan and two of (his cousins) sons of his uncles".

Article (7) provides for the appointment of a Crown Prince under a Royal order in accordance with stipulation of Article (5) of the Basic Law of the State. The Royal order defines the powers and prerogatives of the Crown Prince, as well as the tasks delegated to him. It states that the Crown Prince shall be sworn in before the Sultan before undertaking the powers and tasks delegated to him. The oath shall be taken in accordance with Article (10) of the Basic Law of the State".

The Sultanate of Oman stands out for its exclusive practice of Shura-based democracy, set up on solid grounds emanating from Omani life realities. Shura practice evolved through various stages till it developed into present-day "Council of Oman", with its bicameral chambers—the "State Council" and "Shura Council". Each stage saw the addition of systems and laws that reinforce the tradition of Shura and respond to the expectations of citizens. To this effect, His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik issued Royal Decree No. 7/2021 promulgating Council of Oman Law, which comprises 78 articles.

To contain the coronavirus (Covid-19) that wreaked havoc in countries of the world, the Sultanate of Oman formed a Supreme Committee tasked with tackling developments resulting from the coronavirus (Covid-19) pandemic. The Supreme Committee has been taking 'moderate' decisions and precautionary measures that ensure the safety of citizens and residents, while at the same time catering to social and economic implications on this benign land.

FROM HEAD OF INTERNAL SECURITY SERVICE

His Majesty receives National Day greetings

MUSCAT: His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik has received greetings on the occasion of the 51st National Day from Lt. Gen. Said Ali Al Hilali, Head of the Internal Security Service.

"Your Majesty, may the Almighty Allah protect you.

On the auspicious occasion of the 51st National Day, I am honoured, and so are the personnel of the Internal Security Service, to express the best wishes and sentiments of gratitude to Your Majesty," said Lt. Gen. Al Hilali.

Deep-rooted civilisations

Oman has been one of the deep-rooted civilisations as its history indicates over the ages. Its people have always exhibited noble values of solidarity, an example of which was their stance in the aftermath of the recent tropical cyclone.

Your Majesty,

The 18th of November is one of Oman's eternal days that saw the launch of the renaissance brought about progress and prosperity and will continue to accomplish pridesworthy achievements under Your Majesty's wise leadership.

Your Majesty,

Your loyal soldiers, the personnel of the Internal Security Service express their pledge of allegiance to Your Majesty and vow to perform their sacred duty in full faith and truthfulness.

May the Almighty Allah protect Your Majesty and may He protect you and guard you as a symbol of dignity and resourcefulness.

Happy National Day, Your Majesty." — ONA

In addition, Oman Post will launch a limited-edition medal curated with the same design of the 51st National Day of the Renaissance stamp.

The 51st National Day of the Renaissance stamp, its souvenir sheet, and the upcoming other items will be available at the recently opened Stamps and Collections Shop at the Opera Galleria in Muscat. Collectors can also order the new items via WhatsApp on +96897730684.

PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

Muscat Media Group and Xinhua renew pact on media cooperation

KHALID ORABI

MUSCAT: The Muscat Media Group (MMG) and New China News Agency (Xinhua News Agency) have renewed their partnership agreement on media cooperation in all media fields.

According to the agreement, each group benefits from one another in the exchange of news in all political, social, cultural, arts, sports, technology and other fields in both Arabic and English.

On behalf of Muscat Media Group, the agreement was signed by Ali bin Hamad Al Rahbi, Director of Corporate Communications of Muscat Media Group, while on behalf of New China News Agency, it was signed by Yang Yuan Yong, Director of the Offices of Xinhua News Agency in Oman and Qatar.

Headquarters of MMG

Following the signing ceremony, held at the headquarters of MMG in Muscat, Ali bin Hamad Al Rahbi, Director of Corporate Communications at Muscat Media Group, expressed his delight over the renewal of partnership agreement with Xinhua, which is of vital importance to both the groups.

The two sides have cooperated during the past two years, he said, adding such cooperation is positively reflected in several achievements for both the groups.

The partnership is not only related to news and media cooperation but also focuses on the role media play in expanding horizons of economic, investment and tourism cooperation between the two countries, he added.

The agreement between the two sides came at the time of the Renewed Renaissance led by His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik and aimed at expanding cooperation between the Sultanate of Oman and China, he added.

The partnership came at a time when the relations between the two countries are increasing at all levels, notably in economic and political fields, he said.

Partnership and cooperation

This partnership and cooperation would positively reflect on both the groups not just in the media field but in other fields too.

For instance at the media level, they can benefit from each other in exchange of information, training and video footages in both Arabic and English as well as in publications and organising different events, which would further cement our ties, he added. This media cooperation would showcase the vital role played by the leaders of the two countries; His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik and Chinese President Xi Jinping, he added.

On the other hand, Yang Yuan Yong expressed his delight over renewal of the agreement, which he said, would add to the cooperation accorded during the past two years and further cement the ties between the two groups and the countries.

He said that MMG is one of the largest media groups and Xinhua is an international agency so there would be distinct and fruitful cooperation between the two groups.

The renewal of the agreement reflected the joint achievements made by them in the interest of both the countries, he said.

He said that the cooperation during the past two years, was constructive and fruitful.

For instance, MMG has benefited from the various media, news and press services offered by Xinhua News Agency, which in turn benefited from the services offered by MMG, he said.

"We have succeeded in opening media cooperation horizons between the two countries, which would have positive results," he further said, adding that in the future the two sides would further strengthen cooperation in various fields.

25 killed in Ghana's yellow fever outbreak

ACCRA: At least 25 people have been killed in a yellow fever outbreak in north Ghana, according to the Ghana Health Service (GHS). "In total, 25 deaths have been reported from both the Savannah Region and Upper West Region, and 18 are on admission," read a statement issued late Tuesday, which was signed by Director-General of the GHS Patrick Kuma-Aboagye. To strengthen the management of severe and critical cases, a group of infectious disease experts from the national case management team has trained nurses, doctors, and pharmacists in managing severe and critical cases. The GHS would continue efforts to improve outcomes for persons affected, while targeted vaccination against yellow fever is underway in affected districts, the statement said. ANI

Flooding knocks out power in US and Canada

WASHINGTON: Days of torrential rain have caused severe flooding and landslides across part of Canada and the northwestern United States, with thousands of people being evacuated or rescued from stranded vehicles.

In Canada, a mudslide swept cars off Highway 99 near Pemberton, some 100 miles (160 km) to the northeast of Vancouver, killing at least one person. Rescue teams have been searching through the debris for two other people reported missing, officials said. On Monday, nearly 300 people were rescued by helicopter from Highway 7 near the town of Agassiz after cars were trapped between two mudslides.

In the US state of Washington, a 59-year-old man has also been reported missing after his truck was caught by flooding. Officials in the small city of Sumas, near the Canadian border, said hundreds of people had been evacuated and that three-quarters of homes there had water damage. The flooding also caused widespread power outages in the western part of the state. The cities of Abbotsford, Chilliwack and Merritt in the Canadian province of British Columbia have also seen mass evacuations amid the flooding. AP

Suryakumar, Rohit star as India register five-wicket victory

Asked to bat first, New Zealand got off to the worst start possible as on just the third ball of the innings, Daryl Mitchell (0) was clean bowled

JAIPUR: Suryakumar Yadav (62) and Rohit Sharma (48) starred with the bat as India chased down 165 to defeat New Zealand by five wickets in the first T20I of the three-match series here at the Sawai Mansingh Stadium on Wednesday.

Chasing 165, India got off to an excellent start as openers Rohit Sharma and KL Rahul put on 50 runs inside the first five overs. However, the introduction of Mitchell Santner paid off as he dismissed Rahul (15) on the first delivery of the sixth over.

Suryakumar Yadav then joined Rohit in the middle and the duo took the hosts' score to 85/1 at the halfway mark, still, 80 runs away from the target. Rohit and Suryakumar kept on chipping away at runs, and the hosts were in firm control of the game.

New Zealand got the much-needed breakthrough in the 14th over as Trent Boult got the better of India skipper Rohit (48). Suryakumar kept on going on his merry way and he brought up his half-century off just 34 balls.

India was in a comfortable position but the quick wickets of Suryakumar (62) and Shreyas Iyer (5), saw the hosts needing 10 runs to win off the final over. Daryl Mitchell was chosen to bowl the final over, and in the end, Rishabh Pant (17*) and Axar Patel (1*) managed to take India over the line.

Earlier, Martin Guptill and Mark Chapman played knocks of 70 and 63 respectively as New Zealand posted a total of 164/6. Asked to bat first, New Zealand got off to the worst start possible as on just the third ball of the innings, Daryl Mitchell (0) was clean bowled by Bhuvneshwar Kumar.

Mark Chapman then joined Martin Guptill in the middle and the duo took New Zealand's score to 41/1 after the end of the power-play. Chapman and Guptill kept on moving the scoreboard slowly and steadily, and at the halfway mark, the Kiwis score read 65/1.

In the 11th over bowled by Mohammed Siraj, Guptill changed the tempo as he smashed 16 runs, giving the much-needed momentum to the Kiwis. Chapman also went on to register his half-century and the visitors were looking in firm control.

Chapman finally departed after playing a knock of 63 and he was sent back to the pavilion by Ravichandran Ashwin. In the very same over, Ashwin sent Glenn Phillips (0) back to the pavilion, reducing Kiwis to 110/3 in the 14th over.

In the final four overs, New Zealand managed to add 34 more runs, taking the score past the 160-run mark.

India skipper Rohit Sharma on Wednesday said that the win against New Zealand in the first T20I did not come as easy as the side expected after getting off to a good start.

"As a team, we are happy that those guys got to bat in that situation and finished the game off. Technically was a good game, missing a few players and to come and see what the new players have in terms of ability and I think the way we pulled it back in the last 3-4 overs was magnificent. In the end, it was a great effort from all our bowlers," he added.

Brief Scores: New Zealand 164/6 (Martin Guptill 70, Mark Chapman 63; Ravichandran Ashwin 2-23) vs India 166/5 (Suryakumar Yadav 62, Rohit Sharma 48; Trent Boult 2-31). -ANI

NACRA 17, 49erFX

Fresh faces, medallists mix atop standings

MUSSANAH Oman Sail welcomes teams looking to grasp their opportunity to make a name for themselves at the 2021 Nacra 17, 49erFX and 49er World Championships at Mussanah, Oman.

The puffy easterly seabreezes and cloudless Mussanah sky made for a gentle first day of the championship hosted by the resort and waterfront home of Oman Sail.

The turnout to these post-Olympics championships were equally as mild, but this isn't quite the usual worlds after an Olympics. The difference this time is there's one year lost in the Paris 2024 quadrennium due to a late Tokyo Games and each fleet has a leader who has emerged from their deep squads to take pole position at a major event for the first time, leaving some Tokyo Olympians down in the rankings.

The young Finnish FX team of Ronja Gronblom and Veera Hokka eclipsed their fleet with an 8, 2, 1 to end day one five points clear of Norwegian Tokyo 2020 Olympians Helene Naess and Marie Ronningen. The Norwegian pair were one of three 2020 Olympians who wasted no time re-starting their campaigns after competing in Tokyo, all were in the top six of the 22-boat fleet.

"Our biggest takeaway from Tokyo was focusing on the process and specific goals we set," said American FX crew Maggie Shea. "The goal is an outcome we're happy with regardless of the results."

CRICKET ROUND-UP

Zawawi Powertech beat Al Jadidi Stars

MUSCAT: In a high scoring A Division match of the Oman Cricket League, Sunlight beat Sarco LLC by 17 runs. Batting first after calling it right at the toss, Sunlight scored 270 runs before being all out in 43.3 overs, with Iftikhar Ahmed top-scoring with 59 runs, including nine boundaries and one six. Hafiz Irfan also contributed a quickfire 54 off 29 balls, studded with eight boundaries and two massive sixes. Sandip Patel was the pick of the bowlers, with three wickets.

In reply, Sarco LLC came close to reaching the target, falling short by 17 runs. Zahid Hafiz was the main contributor with the bat, scoring 74 runs with six boundaries and two sixes. Rajesh Devashya and Ilyas Afreedi picked up three wickets each to derail the Sarco march towards the victory.

Brief scores - Sunlight 270/10 in 43.3 overs (Iftikhar Ahmed 59(57) 9x4, 1x6, Hafiz Irfan - 54(29) 8x4, 2x6; Sandip Patel - 53/3, Tanuj Shivakumar Shridevi 20/3) won against Sarco LLC 253/10 in 45.2 Overs (Zahid Hafiz 74(94) 6x4, 2x6; Rajesh Devashya 35/3, Ilyas Afreedi 20/3) by 17 runs

In another A Division match of the Oman Cricket League, Zawawi Powertech had a hard-fought win over Al Jadidi Stars, winning by two wickets in a low-scoring game. Batting first after calling it right at the toss, Al Jadidi Stars inched their way to 116, before being all out in 42 overs. Nidhin Mohan was the top-scorer for Al Jadidi with 34 runs, while Nishad KS was the highest wicket taker for Zawawi, scalping four wickets for 20 runs. In reply, Zawawi also found the going tough, but scampers their way to a win in 30.4 overs, losing eight wickets in the bargain. Prabhakaran Kannan was the notable contributor with 26 runs, while Ali Muhammed tried to make a match of it with four wickets for 33 runs for Al Jadidi.

TENNIS

Federer will not be playing in Australian Open, casts doubt on Wimbledon 2022

MELBOURNE: Swiss maestro Roger Federer will not be playing in the Australian Open and even cast doubts on his Wimbledon 2022 participation.

Federer underwent arthroscopic right knee surgeries in February 2020 and May 2020. Federer has played five tournaments since having those surgeries, all of which came this season. "I will be able to resume running quietly in January and resume sessions on the court with complex support in March or April. I would be incredibly surprised if I would be playing again already in Wimbledon. This summer it was decided to suture the lesion to my meniscus, which involves some downtime," Lematin.ch quoted Federer as saying.

"My ambition is to see what I'm capable of one last time. I also wish I could say goodbye in my own way and on a tennis court. That's why I give my all in my rehabilitation," he added.

Earlier, Federer's coach Ivan

Ljubicic also spoke about the 20-time Grand Slam champion missing out from the Australian Open.

"I think the Australian Open is not a real possibility right now," Ljubicic had told Stats Perform.

"I think there are very few chances, he is still recovering and knowing him, he wants to be sure he can play to win the tournament and be at 100 per cent. He will go step by step because he is 40 years old now and he needs to be patient. He cannot recover as quickly as he used to," he added.

Last month, Roger Federer dropped out of the Top-10 in the ATP rankings. This was for the very first time since January 2017 that the 20-time Grand Slam champion crashed out of the Top-10 rankings in men's tennis. -ANI

ICC RANKINGS

Kohli firm at eighth spot as Zampa breaks into top-three in bowling list

DUBAI: India batter Virat Kohli remained firm at the eighth spot while Mitchell Marsh and David Warner made notable progress in the latest ICC Men's T20I Player Rankings after helping Australia win their first T20 World Cup in Dubai on Sunday.

In the bowling rankings, Australian spinner Adam Zampa climbed up two spots to break into the top-three going past England's Adil Rashid and Afghanistan's Rashid Khan. All-rounder Marsh, who struck an impressive 77 not out off 50 balls to be named Player of the Match in the final against New Zealand, has progressed six spots to reach joint-13th position among batters while Player of the Tournament Warner's scores of 49 against Pakistan in their semifinal and 53 in the final have helped him move up eight places to 33rd position.

New Zealand captain Kane Williamson, who top-scored in the final with a knock of 85, has gained seven places to reach 32nd position while Devon Conway is up to three places to fourth position after scoring 46 against England in the first semi-final in Abu Dhabi.

Pakistan batter Fakhar Zaman is up eight places to 40th following his unbeaten 55 against Australia in the second semifinal in Dubai while spinner Shadab Khan has moved up seven places to 16th position after bagging four for 16 in the same match.

Other bowlers to gain in the latest update include Australia leg-spinner Adam Zampa, who is up two places to third, and fast bowler Josh Hazlewood, whose haul of three for 16 in the final sees him move up two places to sixth position.

New Zealand's left-arm seamer Trent Boult is up seven places to 14th position after taking two for 18 in the final while Pat Cummins (up 24 places to 37th) and Chris Woakes (up 21 places to 46th) have also moved up the bowlers' list. England's Liam Livingstone is up seven places to third among all-rounders. -ANI

Interaction with ex-Australian cricketer Shane Watson

Anis Sajan, Vice Chairman, Danube Group

Shane Watson spoke his heart out in a chat with him during a visit to my home. He was very, very happy that Australia won their first T20 title in the seventh edition of the T20 World cup in Dubai and felt the template has now been set by team for the upcoming T20 World Cup which incidentally will be hosted by Australia and they will surely start as favourites as they know the conditions well.

He credited the turnaround to David Warner coming in to form at the right time after the initial loss to England scoring 289 runs at a whopping strike rate of 147 which set the platform for the other players to follow.

He was also very happy for Mitchell Marsh who batted at number three to score 185 at a strike rate of 147. He was highly impressed with Adam Zampa who picked up 13 wickets and bowled at an economy of less than 6 taking key wickets and also with the form of Josh Hazlewood who picked up 11 wickets.

When I asked him what separated this team from the other World Cup teams in the past who could not win, Watson said peaking at the right time, playing as one unit and most importantly Aaron Finch winning the important tosses were the key in Australia winning their first title. And he believed this would be beginning of many more titles in the shorter format for team Australia.

Watson then spoke about his first stint about doing live commentary which he enjoyed thoroughly and believed since he had played more than 300 games in the T20 format, it was easy for him to analyse the game as he could put himself in the match circumstances and give his opinion.

He got to learn a lot from Ian Bishop as a commentator, the energy what he has rubbed on him too.

Most importantly, when I asked him if he would take up the role of a coach now that he has retired as a player, he said it would be challenging as coaching is a different cup of tea and would first like to start as an assistant to learn the tricks of the trade and then take the full plunge of being a proper coach.

His idol is Stephen Fleming under whom he played the IPL for CSK and he says the secret of being a good coach is to keep your emotions in check and Stephen Fleming is a master at it.

Lastly, when I asked him how would the Ashes series go for team Australia, he was confident they would win the Ashes 3-1 against an England team which has not got enough experience and will find it tough against the Aussies. He was wary of Ben Stokes in the England side and the impact he would add to the team but Australia had enough experience and fire power to beat England in their home conditions.

I had seen Shame Watson on the field as a fighter who gave his all when playing for team Australia but meeting him in person and sharing anecdotes was a dream come true for me

Vision 2040 is going to be the turning point in the history of Oman, to streamline the investment and revenue stream of the government, Oman Investment Authority was established bringing in 65 major government companies under its fold. In a total restructuring of the Ministry of Finance, and

Ministry of National Economy were set up. To augment the revenue stream, Oman tax Authority was established. The Value Added Tax (VAT) system which has been introduced is expected to add OMR400 million to the revenue which by itself should wipe out the budget deficit in three-four years' time.

To attract foreign investors

To attract foreign investors and accelerate the economic diversification process through fast track, all the free zones and special economic Zones were brought under Oman Public Authority for Free Zone. To develop and foster the investment culture and further attract foreign investors, Muscat Stock Exchange Company has been formed. Manufacturing, tourism, transport and logistics, mining, and agriculture and fisheries have been identified as the five core industries to spearhead the acceleration of the economy.

Moody's recently changed Oman's sovereign credit rating outlook from negative to stable, following S&P Global Ratings' decision to upgrade its outlook from stable to positive in early October, with both developments boding well for investment activity ahead. In response to the prudent measures announced and action taken, the World Bank, International Monetary fund, IIF and other rating agencies have already given a bright outlook to the Oman economy.

Dollar stands tall after firm US data, Asian stocks wobble

HONG KONG: The dollar reached a four-and-a-half-year high against the yen on Wednesday after better-than-expected US retail data, which also boosted Wall Street equities, although Asian shares failed to follow suit.

MSCI's broadest index of Asia-Pacific shares outside Japan slipped 0.45 per cent edging off Tuesday's near three-week closing high, with declines in most markets, while Japan's Nikkei lost 0.4 per cent.

The dollar reached a high of 114.97 yen in early Asian hours, its strongest since March 2017, while the euro languished at a 16-month low at $1.1320.

The greenback was helped by Tuesday data which showed US retail sales rose faster than expected in October, potentially encouraging the US Federal Reserve to accelerate the tapering of its asset purchase programme, as inflation remains stubbornly high.

"The data backs up that sense that things are going pretty well, and the Fed can be a little more aggressive if it wants to be without completely causing the party to crash," said Rob Carnell, head of research for the Asia Pacific at ING.

"Top of mind for everyone is inflation right now, it's still an issue after the numbers we got from the US yesterday, and we've got a whole barrage of other inflation data coming today, particularly the UK and Canada," he added.

Britain publishes its October CPI inflation data later today with a high print likely to add pressure on the Bank of England to raise rates in December after surprising markets by holding fire last month.

"What it's not about is the Biden-Xi summit, which had the potential to do damage but seems not to have done so," Carnell added.

At a three hour meeting on Tuesday, US president Joe Biden and Chinese leader Xi Jinping turned down some of the heat in Sino-US tensions, though both sides held to their entrenched positions on a range of issues.

The positive tone offered a slight boost to Asian shares on Tuesday, but this proved short-lived. On Wednesday, the Hong Kong benchmark slipped 0.4 per cent, weighed by property developers and casinos as traders bet a recent rebound in both sectors had gone too far. Chinese blue chips were flat. -BNA

Ahli Islamic rewards 51 winners cash prizes totalling OMR102,000

Ahli Islamic has called on all its customers to continue saving while maintaining a minimum balance of OMR100 in their Qitaf accounts

MUSCAT: Celebrating Oman's 51st National Day of the Renaissance, Ahli Islamic has announced special draws, offering cash prizes totalling OMR102,000, for 51 lucky winners (OMR 2,000 per winner). The draw will be streamed live on Ahli Islamic social media pages in the presence of bank officials.

Ahli Islamic has called on all its customers to continue saving while maintaining a minimum balance of OMR 100 in their Qitaf accounts. Through this simple scheme, the Bank aims to expand the base of winners and reach the largest possible number of eligible customers who can qualify to enter the draw and win valuable prizes.

Unveiling the details of the upcoming draw, Yousuf bin Salim Al Rawahi, Deputy General Manager and Head of Ahli Islamic, said, "At Ahli Islamic, we share the joy with the citizens and residents of the country. We are pleased to celebrate with our esteemed customers the anniversary of National Day by providing them even greater opportunities to win cash prizes, which will motivate them to save more and achieve their dreams and aspirations of a more stable future - for themselves and their families. On this glorious occasion, I extend my heartiest congratulations to our leader His Majesty Sultan Haitham bin Tarik and the Omani people. May Allah secure this glory for many years and may our country enjoy the rewards of safety, stability and prosperity."

He further affirmed that the bank would continue to offer innovative services and products that live up to customers' expectations, and contribute to widening its customer base with provisions of faster and easier banking solutions that are consistent with their needs. He also pointed out that the Qitaf prize scheme, which includes draws for a variety of customers, has, since its launch, been instrumental in changing the lives of many winners. It has become an inspiring and motivating event for account holders to continue saving and planning for their future, he maintained.

Qitaf not only aims to raise awareness of the importance of savings in society but also provides investment opportunities. Ahli Islamic seeks to reward more than 4,200 customers from all branches of the bank, with prizes totaling more than OMR 1,250,000, throughout the year.

Qitaf offers weekly and monthly cash prizes, along with a cash prize of OMR 100,000 per quarter, for one winner. The minimum criteria to be qualified for the quarterly draw are to retain OMR 1,000 as the average quarterly balance. Qitaf cash prizes are withdrawn through an electronic draw system, taking into account the terms and conditions set by the bank.

OPEN BADMINTON CHAMPIONSHIP

Harshpreet Singh bags championship title

MUSCAT: Harshpreet Singh bagged three gold medals in under 16 boys singles, under 16 boys doubles, and men's singles and took the championship title in Modern Exchange - Indian Social Club Open badminton championship 2021.

He displayed superb skills and speed to thrash challenging champion Himesh Haridas in straight sets by scoring 21-9 and 21-12 in Open Men's Singles. Harshpreet Singh Arora's has been trained in Prakash Padukone Academy to receive professional coaching in badminton. At the age of 12, he played state tournaments for Punjab and took part in All India Ranking Tournaments. He performed exceptionally well by winning the title in Under 13 boys singles at a state level.

In Men's doubles open, Nowfal and Shanith Kallath beat Mohammed Haroos and Rahul Hari in straight sets. Nowfal and Shanith faced stiff resistance before wrapping the 1st set at 21-13 and witnessed losing confidence in Haroos and Rahul to pass the 2nd set at 21-12.

In veterans doubles, Nadeem and Jinesh faced some initial resistance from top-seeded Gireesh

Pillai and Francis PT but the duo played carefully to claim victory in their favour. A brilliant combination of teamwork helped Rajesh & Nimita Ann to win against Himesh Haridas and Kashmain Mixed doubles open category. Despite trailing from 8-12, the duo surpass the threat of opponents and registered 1st set in their favour. Rajesh and Nimita displayed superb skills in the 2nd set to take advantage of their opponents and claim victory by scoring 21-19 and 24-22.

In another Junior doubles girls, Bhoomika & Christine showed an excellent display of game with consummate teamwork in the victory over Diya and Divya Ganesh. In Girls Singles Under 16 finals, Christine displayed superb performance to oust favourite Nimita Ann from the fray by scoring 21-12 and 21-3 and the talented youngster Diya Anil with his dangerous net plays claimed victory over Naima Anil scoring 21-6 and 21-12 in Girls Under 12. Tactical player Himnesh Shalot displayed his skills but his opponent Jitheesh Pandyan dashed his hopes by registering a victory over Himnesh scoring 21-14 and 21-4 in Boys Under 14 finals.

ANNIVERSARY

Maserati Ghibli: A powerful car named for powerful wind celebrates 55 years

MODENA: Maserati is celebrating the 55th anniversary of the Ghibli. On 3 November 1966, the Maserati Ghibli made its debut on the world stage, at the Ghia stand at the Turin Motor Show. A new interpretation of the concept of a granturismo car, the two-seater coupé was designed by Giorgetto Giugiaro. The name recalled a wind, a tradition that continues to this day with the Grecale, part of the Trident brand's new era.

The Ghibli is a powerful, warm wind in North Africa that carries with it a great deal of sand; the decision to take its name was no coincidence, given the car's speed and the 'warmth' of its technical and stylistic specifications.

In its presentation of the Ghibli, Maserati proposed a car with a sporty yet unostentatious impression: the engine was newly designed, based on the experience of the well-known 8-cylinder used in the Mexico. It could deliver an output of 330 hp in the 4,700-cc version, and was followed by an even more powerful 4,900-cc version.

To leave more room for style by lowering the height of the hood, the engine was equipped with a dry sump - a solution used solely in racing, and was mounted on the tubular chassis, very low down. This solution gave the car its typically assertive and slender appearance, one of the cornerstones of its success.

The design was entrusted to Ghia, which then had Giorgetto Giugiaro on its creative design team. The most significant design cue - the marker of a decisive change from the Ghibli's predecessors - was the integration of the volumes: there was no distinction between the car's body and the passenger compartment; they were neither separate nor overlapping, rather they were joined together as a single surface. While the lines were geometric and taut, Giugiaro's hand ensured that the sense of stiffness could be smoothed out.

The most obvious new stylistic feature was the front, definitely an original for Maserati: the headlights were retractable and the very slim grille occupied the car's entire front. The Trident logo remained in the middle, albeit smaller than before.

The side view enhanced the slender line of the Ghibli: a long, low bonnet, a heavily inclined windscreen, perfect proportions with no superfluous decoration. The triangular rear pillar took on its own identity, becoming an iconic component later taken up in other successful models from the Trident brand.

The changes from the past could also be seen in the conception of the two-seater interior, where the instruments were built into an overall design that prevailed over the individual components.

The result was a gran turismo car that remained true to the exclusive, luxury style, power and comfort - yet with an overarching theme of racing - for which Maserati cars have always stood out.

PRAISES POUR IN FROM OMANIS, EXPATS FOR HIS MAJESTY’S LEADERSHIP AND WISDOM

Times News Service

Nationals and expatriates in the Sultanate of Oman have hailed His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik’s role in shaping the country’s long-term future, as well as his able leadership and wise governance.

On the occasion of the country’s 51st National Day, they have also pointed to his ability to weather Oman through the storm of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Rashid bin Abdullah Al Nasri, the CEO of Omani company Mirsal, alluded to the effective governance taken to deal with the fallout of the COVID-19 pandemic.

“National Day has inspired me to say thanks to His Majesty, and today is a very good time for all of us to take stock of the many aspects of our country he is trying to improve,” he said. “The government has taken many excellent and effective measures to counterbalance the low oil prices, which were a result of the pandemic.

“He has also worked to address other economic aspects: we can see that he has ordered our cabinet to work efficiently, which has enabled us to reduce our budget deficit significantly,” he added. “His Majesty was able to deal with the difficult situations we faced alongside the entire world. Despite all this, he has continued to pay close attention to Vision 2040, so that our economy continues to grow and we all have jobs.”

Al Nasri was particularly impressed by the indicators listed under Vision 2040 that address comprehensive development across many areas, including government, society, the environment and the economy.

People in the field of education – both Omanis and expatriates alike – were also quick to offer their congratulations to His Majesty the Sultan on the 51st National Day.

“Oman is my second homeland – I consider it so because it is a place where one feels peaceful and calm,” said Niveen Sharawi, a teacher at a private school. “Oman’s culture – which is reflected in its kind people – makes the country very welcoming to all.”

Egyptian national Eman Rashad, who first came to Oman in 2012, was also of a similar vein: “His Majesty deserves our praise for the decisions he has taken to preserve this land, protect it from danger, and create good opportunities for citizens and residents alike.

“Thank you to His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik for giving us Egyptian nationals an amazing life in Oman...we consider him to be our affectionate father...may God be with him and shower him with blessings,” she exclaimed.

Another teacher, Khadhra bint Abdellah, said the wisdom and justice of His Majesty was evident in the good treatment provided to expatriates in the country.

“Having lived in Oman since 1996, I can safely say that I have never been ostracised or alienated,” she admitted. “His Majesty provided many facilities to people in light of the COVID pandemic, including free accommodation and vaccination for all arrivals. We love His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik very much.”

Eman Jameel went on to add: “All the words of praise we bestow on His Majesty the Sultan do not do him enough justice, but I can say that he is like a raincloud that spread its showers all across Oman.”

Laila Al Balushi, an Omani from the Wilayat of Shinas, said in this context: “During his reign so far, he has witnessed many events, and it is never easy to earn the trust of an entire population. Despite the challenges and difficult situations he has faced, however, he has proven his worth, thanks to his style of leadership and the essence of his speeches, which provide hope for a better tomorrow and promises of joy to our future, promising generations.”

Another Omani national, Maha Al Raisi, added: “It is our pleasure to witness the richness and wisdom of the achievements of His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik. We are the children of this benevolent country filled with the bounties of nature, and a spirit of solidarity during both times of crisis and prosperity. We ask God Almighty to protect Oman’s people and ruler.”

A student at the University of Technology and Applied Sciences in Ibri, Eman Al Badi exuded wisdom beyond her young years while speaking of His Majesty.

“He has had to lead Oman through the difficult circumstances of the pandemic, and contend and contend with a fall in oil prices because of the same,” she said. “Through his intelligence and wisdom, Oman emerged with only a little damage, and our deficit has also decreased over time. This shows us that His Majesty’s way of governance is the right one.”

“His Majesty takes great interest in the country’s youth: >S3

PRaises TO OMAN

< FROM C1 in many of his speeches and decisions taken, we can see that government and private institutions have been asked to take care of young people, and make optimal use of their energy and intelligence.”

Ali Salim Kafetan, who works at the Office for the Conservation of the Environment at the Diwan of Royal Court, was also on hand to praise His Majesty.

“His Majesty has a clear vision which helps him see the state of his country after 20 years with an honest realism, as well as the challenges the country is going through,” he said.

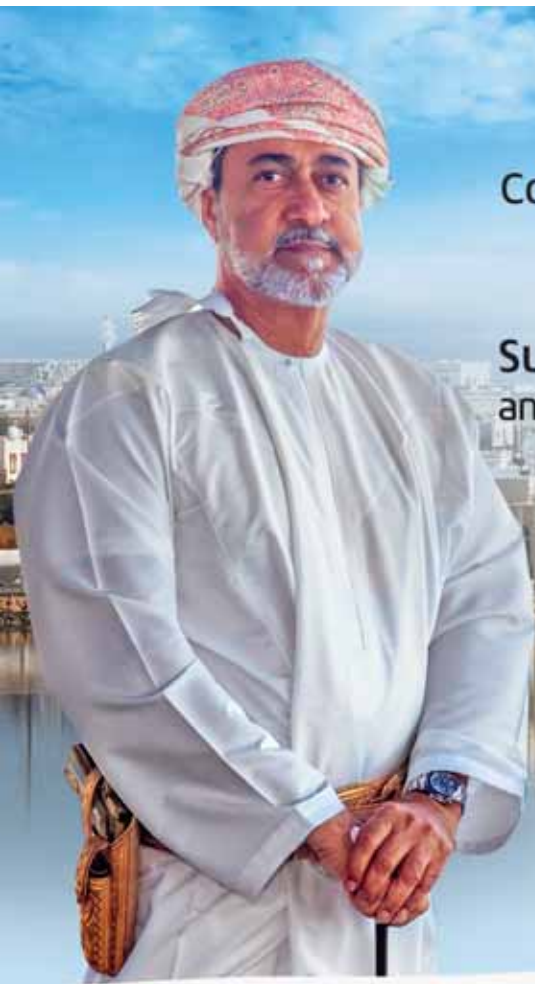

“He has been committed to dealing with them ever since he ascended to the throne. There is no doubt that many of the things that are being done are measures people might not be used to, but this pain will only be there in the beginning.

Fixing problems

“Our leader, His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik, understands how to fix deeper problems,” he explained.

Faisal Al Badi, from oil and gas company OQ, ventured: “His Majesty Sultan Haitham Bin Tarik aims to take Oman on the renaissance that was begun by the late His Majesty Sultan Qaboos bin Said bin Taimour, and make ours a country like no other.

“In him are the traits of a ruler represented by the strength of his personality, his measured thinking, his wisdom, and insightful vision, all of which go towards the betterment of Oman, its economy, and its people,” he added.

PROGRESS

The nation’s march towards progress

THE SULTANATE OF OMAN’S ambitious plans towards economic diversification and expansion are based on a number of key objectives: reducing dependence on oil and gas-based sources of income, weaning the country off imports and becoming an exporter, creating more employment opportunities for people, improving the standard of living, and cushioning the country against major global price fluctuations.

The blueprint for this economic and social transformation is Oman Vision 2040. The vision is the national reference for economic and social planning in the Sultanate, for the period from 2021 to 2040, and the source of national sector strategies and five-year development plans.

After being developed with extensive participation by the community, Oman Vision 2040 was approved in 2020, put into action as of early January 2021, and will remain in force till 2040.

Tourism in Oman:
An adventure in nature

Blessed with varied natural and rugged beauty, Oman’s outdoors are an adventure and eco-tourist’s dream.

The government has identified a number of locations across the country for people to experience the wonders of nature, and work is currently underway to make them accessible to tourists, as well as provide the various facilities required by visitors in such locations.

The locations chosen for development are already quite popular with domestic visitors, and given their uniqueness, it is no small wonder that they have been earmarked as iconic.

Among them is Majlis Al Jinn, a cave in North Sharqiyah which is the second-largest cave chamber in the world, and contains one of the longest free rappel courses in the world. Also selected are Jabal Akhdar aka the Green Mountain, already a famous tourist destination, and Khasab, in the northern exclave of Musandam. Wadi Shab, popular throughout the year, is also going to see significant development.

A total of 50 trekking paths across Oman have also been completed across the country, making it easier for people to explore the wild, untamed beauty of a land known as the Essence of Arabia.

Major stakeholders in these projects include the Ministry of Heritage and Tourism, and Omran, the country’s tourism development arm.

The plethora of rare and indigenous plants and animals found in Oman is another reason the country is a nature lover’s paradise. To attract more visitors to observe nature in action, a new ecotourism venue, Al Qurum Nature Reserve, has been developed.

The government has accorded high priorities to protecting nature reserves in Oman, which it considers one of the biggest responsibilities of the tourism sector. It has therefore created a framework for establishing a joint collaboration to ensure the growth and protection of these areas, in order to make Oman an eco-friendly tourism destination.

Another area of tourism expansion is the development of heritage sites, older areas of villages and cities that were built generations ago and show people the traditional Omani way of life. An example of one such area is Harat Al Bilad in Manah, which has one of the largest harara or old quarters in the country, providing great opportunities for people to understand the country’s rich culture. Some of the homes in this area date back to the ninth century AD.

Currently seeking more investors

These projects aside, Oman has also drawn up plans to install tourist-friendly facilities in areas commonly visited by domestic tourists such as wadis, mountains, and beaches. It is hoped that these upgrades will encourage more people to visit such areas and experience the richness of the country.

Manufacturing - industry and excellence take centre-stage

Manufacturing has been identified as a key component on Oman’s road to economic diversification under Vision 2040.

Efforts to set up more industries at home also have other major benefits that go a long way towards nation building: manufacturing operations create thousands more jobs for locals in the country, reduce the country’s reliance on exports and external supply chains, and create products for other nations to import

An expanded manufacturing base will encourage more local and foreign investment, and will provide more opportunities to other linked businesses in the country, such as construction, logistics and communications.

Set up by the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Investment Promotion (MOCIIP), the country’s Industrial Strategy is built on the plan that by 2040, Oman will have a developed manufacturing base grounded by well-built technology, and takes full advantage of the creative Omani capabilities and the latest innovative technology.

It focuses on improving the well-being of people within the region, which it expects to do through the following: diversifying manufacturing activities, developing unique and varied products, expanding the geographic spread of the national manufacturing industry, working on bettering technology used in local industry, and establishing a culture of innovation.

To meet the predicted expansion in manufacturing operations, Oman has devised a national employment enhancement plan that aims to provide more job opportunities to locals, improve Omanisation rates, and train quality workers.

A project jointly overseen by the MOCIIP, the Ministry of Labour, and the Madayn, the Public Establishment for Industrial Estates, the plan also includes efforts to replace foreign nationals with locals, as well as set up a follow-up mechanism for companies to ensure they nationalise their staff as required.

To further improve the quality and efficiency of Oman’s manufacturing, the country’s Industrial Innovation Centre has been tasked with creating an ecosystem that encourages innovativeness to fuel industrial growth, competitiveness, job creation and accelerate economic diversification.

It has made significant success over the last two years in developing an efficient ecosystem, which in turn enabled the achievement of mandated KPIs, while making national political, environmental, social and economic impact.

A list of some of the manufacturing projects Oman is undertaking is featured here:

Business - setting up
a world-class infrastructure

To make it easier for businesses to set up shop and operate in

Oman, the government is unrolling a number of initiatives aimed at creating a more investor-friendly environment for the years to come.

A reliable business infrastructure is key to expansion of the national economy. Many of the government’s initiatives contribute to doing just that. The overall goal of these plans are to enhance the investment environment, as well as facilitate the services within the sector.

The spread of COVID-19 was challenging for the whole business environment and the services provided within the economic sectors. Despite this, relevant government entities have made intensive efforts in achieving several initiatives and projects in 2020.

There are about 21 initiatives dedicated towards improving business confidence in Oman:

Foreign Ownership of Real Estate

The initiative aims to find a tool for foreign individuals to own/benefit from specific housing initiatives, in order to keep capital in Oman and promote foreign investment.

Simplify Litigation Procedure Law

The judicial system is an integral part of the enablers of the national economy. Therefore, the issuance of this legislation has a direct impact on the business and investment environment in the country for many reasons.

The aim of this initiative is to come up with different solutions to stimulate the real estate sector, through reducing housing fees and proposing a new way of owning real estate units.

OMR 10 million+ projects

Ministers’ offices were instructed to accelerate the approval of licenses and permits for the strategic projects valued at OMR10 million and above. Therefore, this initiative aims to prioritise the registration and licensing of high impact projects for strategic high net worth investors.

Foreign Direct Capital Investment Executive Regulations

The issuance of the Foreign Direct Capital Investment Law in the beginning of 2019 led to a ministerial decision to create a working team to handle the executive regulations of the law.

This initiative aims to develop a clear and transparent process to enable investors/business owners to obtain pre-approved licenses/permits to commence business operations. It also seeks to design and deploy a pilot programme of the process, based on restricted criteria, prior to full implementation.

Real Estate Development Law

The Real Estate Development Law aims to regulate the real estate sector in the country, as it will include the development of a real estate indicator to evaluate properties, focus on the role of real estate brokers and evaluators and set clear standards for their work, while promoting various aspects of the real estate market at the same time.

Operating Real Estate Development Centre

The initiative aims to create a single platform that brings together 11 entities to complete the investors’ transactions, aiming to finalise initial construction permits procedures within 27 working days.

The registration of real estate developers commenced in the beginning of 2019 and began receiving projects manually from March 2019.

The Digital Transformation of the Judiciary

The judicial system aims to protect a national economy based on free market and protection of the rights of everyone, in order to encourage and protect competition.

In view of the rapid growth in the era of technology and the fourth industrial revolution, making some changes and amendments to local laws and legislations has become of great importance to keep pace with the current developments.
